RE: Macungie Crossing

Dear Board of Commissioners:

I have followed with great interest the Hamilton Crossings project including the controversy surrounding the TIF.

As you know, Macungie Crossing has an approved site plan for the construction of an approximately 133,500 square foot building with an additional 36,000± square feet of retail space on a property located one-half a mile from the proposed Hamilton Crossings. Several years ago, despite performing approximately $5,000,000 in on and off site improvements, Home Depot elected not to construct its 133,500 square foot building and open a store at this location. Since that time, we have attempted to find a retailer who might be interested in taking an assignment of our lease and opening a store at this location.

If the TIF is ultimately not approved, and the Hamilton Crossing project not constructed, I believe our site is capable of accommodating either Costco, Target or Whole Foods and may serve as a suitable alternative.

Sincerely,

Thomas Gallagher / mdt
