HOW TO MAKE A ROBLOX GAME JEREMY TUBBS, It all started when I noticed my kids spending hours on Roblox Their eyes lit up every time they jumped collected coins or ran from hazards They laughed shouted ideas and shared tips with each other I watched them play fascinated by their creativity and engagement One day it clicked If they could spend so much time playing why couldn't we create a game together a game that could be fun interactive and maybe even profitable I realized this was an opportunity to learn to build and to explore the world of Roblox development alongside my kids Roblox is more than a game platform It's a space where imagination meets creation Players can explore worlds complete challenges and interact with friends and creators can build those worlds I wanted to be one of those creators Don't Use Your Words! Jane Juffer,2019-05-28 How children are taught to control their feelings and how they resist this emotional management through cultural production Today even young kids talk to each other across social media by referencing memes songs and movements constructing a common vernacular that resists parental educational and media imperatives to name their feelings and thus control their bodies Over the past two decades children's television programming has provided a therapeutic site for the processing of emotions such as anger but in doing so has enforced normative structures of feeling that Jane Juffer argues weaken the intensity and range of children's affective experiences Don't Use Your Words seeks to challenge those norms highlighting the ways that kids express their feelings through cultural productions including drawings fan art memes YouTube videos dance moves and conversations while gaming online Focusing on kids between ages five and nine Don't Use Your Words situates these productions in specific contexts including immigration policy referenced in drawings by Central American children just released from detention centers and electoral politics as contested in kids artwork expressing their anger at Trump's victory Taking issue with the mainstream tendency to speak on behalf of children Juffer argues that kids have the agency to answer for themselves what does it feel like to be a kid *Game On!
