New Directions in Childhood Studies James M. Curtis, 2024-01-04 New Directions in Childhood Studies Innocence Trauma and Agency in the Twenty first Century acknowledges that the conceptual frameworks for understanding the experience of childhood in the twentieth century are no longer adequate and offers important updates to the construct of American childhood The chapters in this collection examine contemporary children's literature film and video games to explore the ways in which everyday realities like trauma disaster and death impact the experience of childhood in America today In many ways the essays show the narratives blur traditional lines between children's and adult content taking children series as subjects while also guiding them through the processes of dealing with the particular challenges Collectively the essays develop a more contemporary construct of the American child and offer new insights into what that construction might mean for contemporary American society and culture

Play in a Covid Frame Anna Beresin, Julia Bishop, 2023-06-01 During the international coronavirus lockdowns of 2020 2021 millions of children youth and adults found their usual play areas out of bounds and their friends out of reach How did the pandemic restrict everyday play and how did the pandemic offer new spaces and new content This unique collection of essays documents the ways in which communities around the world harnessed play within the limiting frame of Covid 19 Folklorists Anna Beresin and Julia Bishop adopt a multidisciplinary approach to this phenomenon bringing together the insights of a geographically and demographically diverse range of scholars practitioners and community activists The book begins with a focus on social and physical landscapes before moving onto more intimate portraits of play among the old and young including coronavirus themed games and novel toy inventions Finally the co authors explore the creative shifts observed in frames of play ranging from Zoom screens to street walls This singular chronicle of coronavirus play will be of interest to researchers and students of developmental psychology childhood studies education playwork sociology anthropology and folklore as well as to toy museum and landscape designers This book will also be of help to parents professional organizations educators and urban planners with a postscript of concrete suggestions advocating for the essential role of play in a post pandemic world
