Playthings and Playtimes

Hannah Field, Seth Giddings, Ben Highmore, 2025-10-29 In 2024 at the Barbican Art Gallery in London the Mexico based Belgian artist Francis Al s exhibited films of children from across the world playing with sticks hoops marbles and other toys The implication was clear play feels and looks like a universal language but takes on specific local forms Using this as a starting point Playthings and Playtimes explores the conflict and contradictions that circulate when play is simultaneously recognized as a species attribute part of human nature and as something crucially differentiated across time and space by design technology sentiment pedagogic values and so on The chapters in this volume demonstrate this interplay between the fixed and the mutable Topics range from the elaborate miniature worlds made by H G Wells and his sons to digitized fidget spinners from avant garde Uruguayan artist Joaqu n Torres Garc a s wooden blocks to the playground spaces of Kuwait and from the much maligned plastic toy to the new museum Young V A Together they bring play and the world of feelings into sustained contact with the history of material culture and design psychoanalysis childhood studies and other disciplines concerned with play culture In the process Playthings and Playtimes investigates key elements of a humanities approach to the modern world through the prism of play s affective materiality

Parenting at the Intersections

Jaya Ramesh, Priya Saaral, 2024-01-16 This is an invaluable nuanced and deeply needed guide to parenting diverse children as we move together toward a future in which all brains and bodies are supported and belong Jessica McCabe How to ADHD What if parenting were an act of social justice In this part story telling part self inquiry book authors and therapists Jaya Ramesh and Priya

Saaral situate parenting children of color with neurodivergence within the context of various interlocking systems of oppression including settler colonialism White supremacy ableism and capitalism These intersections engender isolation and loneliness Using the voices of parents on the front lines and other experts Parenting at the Intersections offer an invitation to parents to slow down and reflect on their own parenting journeys When parents can be given space to listen to their own voices to connect with their children and find community with others they can find the most radical ways to disrupt systems of oppression     Punch ,1875
