Internal Revenue Acts of the United States, 1909-1950 Bernard D. Reams (Jr.), 1979    The Current Index of All Cases Reported in the "Law Reports" and "Weekly Notes" During the Year ..., 1898    Restrictive Practices in Health

Care and Disability Settings Bernadette McSherry, Yvette Maker, 2020-12-13 This volume explores different models of regulating the use of restrictive practices in health care and disability settings. The authors examine the legislation, policies, inspection, enforcement, and accreditation of the use of practices such as physical, mechanical, and chemical restraint. They also explore the importance of factors such as organisational culture and staff training to the effective implementation of regulatory regimes. In doing so, the collection provides a solid evidence base for both the development and implementation of effective approaches to restrictive practices that focus on their reduction and ultimately their elimination across health care sectors. Divided into five parts, the volume covers new ground in multiple respects. First, it addresses the use of restrictive practices across mental health, disability, and aged care settings, creating opportunities for new insights and interdisciplinary conversations across traditionally siloed sectors. Second, it includes contributions from research academics, clinicians, regulators, and mental health consumers, offering a rich and comprehensive picture of existing regulatory regimes and options for designing and implementing regulatory approaches that address the failings of current systems. Finally, it incorporates comparative perspectives from Australia, New Zealand, the Netherlands, Germany, and England. The book is an invaluable resource for regulators, policymakers, lawyers, clinicians, consumer advocates, and academics grappling with the use and regulation of restrictive practices in mental health, disability, and aged care contexts.    Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices Jonathan A.
