Burden or Benefit: External Data Reporting Kristina Powers, Angela E. Henderson, 2016-02-08 Blazing new trails in the area of reporting and transparency Required and voluntary reporting of student data to external agencies has increased in volume quantity and complexity and understanding the scope of reporting requirements and the associated burden is critical to higher education practitioners This volume focuses on new directions in institutional reporting and the associated burden The convergence of increased reporting coupled with the demand to be more efficient with resources in a saturated and competitive higher education market make this a timely and needed volume for higher education administrators This is the 166th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Timely and comprehensive New Directions for Institutional Research provides planners and administrators in all types of academic institutions with guidelines in such areas as resource coordination information analysis program evaluation and institutional management Rankings and the Reshaping of Higher Education Ellen Hazelkorn, 2015-03-23 University rankings have gained popularity around the world and are now a significant factor shaping reputation This second edition updates Ellen Hazelkorn's first comprehensive study of rankings from a global perspective drawing in new original research and extensive analysis It is essential reading for policymakers managers and scholars

Measures of Educational Outcomes Versus Standards of Institutional Machinery as High School Accrediting Criteria Otis Carroll Trimble, Hermann Henry Remmers, 1933

Piece to Text on the Monument and One: Letters with the International Body Managers Kiyoun Kim, 2018-08-17 The aims of this book is clear and straightforward It was motivated to convert an inhumane or insipid experience with the various sources of global ranking into the kind of humanly and cultural experience within our daily lifestyle Their outlook from presentation is masked with the number purely and perhaps through a myriad of complicated data or ranking information The concept or self identification within the experience or exposure would be less substantial or hard to get palpable My attempt to improve this aspect of contemporary practice certainly will fall short but you can sense in some paragraphs or titles I wrote this small piece of book in the end to take care of human integrity and stories for advancing the inherence and liveliness of interested actors or consumers despite all the wind heads from the turf of existing ranking sources

The College Completion Glass—Half-Full or Half-Empty? Tiffany Beth Mfume, 2018-12-21 Despite the Great Recession and looming student loan debt crisis college education remains the most proven invaluable lifetime investment and serves as the most reliable path to upward mobility and socioeconomic class reassignment Mfume suggests that the value added of even one year of college can be transformative As higher education professionals and partners continue to advocate for new and improved college retention and graduation measures The College Completion Glass Half Full or Half Empty Exploring the Value of Postsecondary Education presents a new paradigm for higher education one that focuses on the value added of postsecondary education as well as on student success beyond the traditional measure of college graduation rates a model which merges conventional practices and supports for students with non traditional partnerships with and advocacy from successful non completers
