Transnational Streaming Television Joseph Straubhaar, Swapnil Rai, Melissa Santillana, Silvia Dalben, 2025-09-29 Examining the impact of streaming on the global production and flow of television and film this book provides an innovative theoretical framework to conceptualize how asymmetric dynamics of power play out in the era of global streaming This book analyses Netflix and Amazon Prime Video two tech based digital native streamers and compares them to Disney and HBO Max Warner Bros Discovery two legacy Hollywood studios with cable TV and broadcasting operations now pursuing global streaming The book compares their different models of operation and specifically explores how these four streamers particularly Netflix are co producing and commissioning television programs and films in an increasing number of countries It also examines how this trend is creating new opportunities for independent producers and soft power for the producing nations This book further considers the direct algorithmic targeting of individuals by their genre preferences across boundaries of culture language and nation boundaries that previously protected national and regional television markets creating a new flow of data colonialism At a more local level the book also examines some of the national and regional streaming platforms emerging in some of the key players in the Global South Brazil India and Mexico This is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in media studies global media and global television studies

SABKA SAATH SABKA VIKAS PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA MODI SPEAKS (2015-2016) Publications Division,

This volume is a collection of 80 speeches of the Prime Minister in his second year in office from May 2015 to April 2016. Divided in five sections the speeches in this volume invoke the concept of good governance, lay down the dream for making India prosperous and proficient in various fields, they hail the contributions of soldiers, farmers and scientists, they raise the hope for respect and better life for all our countrymen and they present a clear commitment for Rising India. Reading Media Jonathan Gray, Journal of Popular Communication Jonathan Gray, Daphne Gershon, 2026-02-03 Innovative methods in textual analysis to decode today's ever expanding media landscape. Reading Media: How to do Textual Analysis reinvigorates one of media and cultural studies' most foundational methods at a moment when it is most needed, showing its continuing vitality by adapting it to new media environments, cultural objects and scholarly questions. The volume insists that the close study of meaning, form and representation remains central to understanding media's power. With contributions from leading and emerging scholars, the book offers a diverse toolkit from narratological and semiotic analysis of film and TV to historical, poetic accounts of TikTok, multimodal analysis of Afrobeats music videos and postcolonial criticism of games. Essays extend the scope of textual analysis to unexpected objects such as plastic waste, memes and refugee-authored media, while others demonstrate how texts operate across platforms, genres and transmedia franchises. Beyond offering new and improved approaches to textual analysis, each chapter illustrates its approach using a specific case study, functioning both as a step-by-step guide and as an example of textual analysis in action. Reading Media advances a vision of textual analysis that is rigorous yet flexible, attuned to both aesthetics and politics, and responsive to today's media environment. Essential for students and scholars in media communication and cultural studies. Reading Media both reaffirms and renews textual analysis as an indispensable way of engaging with the mediated worlds that shape contemporary life. The Geopolitics and Geoeconomics of Technology J. Mark Munoz, 2026-01-29 Geopolitics refers to the confluence of factors such as geography, economics and demography on the politics and policies of governments, states and other key global actors. In recent years, technological breakthroughs have altered the operational and competitive terrain of organizations around the world. Technological dominance has become an important form of competitive advantage for countries. It is increasingly important for organizations worldwide to understand the relevance and impact of geopolitical events on technology and vice versa. This book assembles the views of leading thinkers from around the world and identifies key issues to consider in the geopolitics and geoeconomics of technology. Drawing upon academic research and practitioner insights, the book is designed to be a key reference book on the topic, offering clear conceptual frameworks and empirical findings and combining them with practical approaches that may be used by executives, academics and policymakers. It builds on rich perspectives from experts from around the world, offering both the depth and breadth of coverage on the topic. The book offers insights into future trends and their potential impact on geopolitics, offering recommendations for policymakers and stakeholders to navigate the contemporary geopolitical and geoeconomic landscape. The book's audience will include technology and
