Mutum, Soo Yeong Ewe, Ezlika M. Ghazali, Racheal Louis Vincent, 2024-04-01

There is an increasing interest in emerging markets because of the higher economic growth rates compared to developed economies However these markets have a diverse consumer base with unique needs and preferences As a result companies in these markets face different challenges and opportunities Unfortunately there is a lack of marketing cases from these markets This book presents actual real world marketing cases in these markets offering an in depth look at some of the issues faced by companies in different industries It is hoped that the cases would serve as valuable reference material for academics students professionals in marketing business strategy and other related fields as well as policymakers to better understand the challenges of these markets and develop strategies to succeed in them EBOOK: Behavioral Corporate Finance, 2/e SHEFRIN, 2018-05-18 EBOOK Behavioral Corporate Finance 2 e

Where the World is Not Kim Savelson, 2009 How do novels that literally discuss invention and inventors engage through such discussions an array of critically important conversations and issues beyond invention And to where and how can we trace and follow such discourses In Where the World Is Not Cultural Authority and Democratic Desire in Modern American Literature Kim Savelson examines the ways in which resoundingly popular U S novels by Frank Norris Willa Cather F Scott Fitzgerald and Ralph Ellison host the tug of war between thought and action between the democratic agenda of the pragmatist movement and the aristocratic idea of aesthetics Savelson argues for and reads these novels as a way of thinking through the implications for the meaning and making of culture brought about by the ongoing social revolution of democratic modernity She thus expands the scope of the current work being done on pragmatism as well as the work being done on literature and democracy carving out an intersection of these two fields Savelson demonstrates that the questions under her consideration appeared at different key moments over the course of the first half of the twentieth century embodying and deepening the struggle between the abstract and the practical the cultural and the commercial a struggle that turned into a dilemma and a period of growth for modern democratic desire In so doing she offers a historical recontextualization of selected literary texts analyzing them as a way of thinking about intellectual history with subtlety and particularity
