Global IT Outsourcing Sundeep Sahay,Brian Nicholson,S. Krishna,2003-11-20 This book offers key insights into how to manage software development across international boundaries It is based on a series of case studies looking at the relationships between firms from North America the UK Japan and Korea with Indian software houses In these case studies which have typically been compiled over a 3 4 year timespan the authors analyse the multi faceted challenges encountered in managing these Global Software Alliances GSAs These challenges range from the conflicts that managers face when dealing with distance to the tensions of transferring knowledge across time and space to issues in trying to establish universal standards in a context of constant change and the problems of identity that developers and clients experience in having to deal with different organizations and countries Throughout the book the authors draw on their extensive research and experience to offer constructive advice on how to manage GSAs more effectively Entrepreneurial Creativity in a Virtual World Denise Tsang,2015-05-29 The start of the 21st century has seen an explosion of online media with creative content becoming a driving force for competitiveness As twin engines of the digital economy much has been said about both creativity and entrepreneurship but less about their relationship Nuts & Volts ,2004 Preserving Popular Music Heritage Sarah Baker,2015-05-01 There is a growing awareness around the world of the pressing need to archive the material remnants of popular music so as to safeguard the national and local histories of this cultural form Current research suggests that in the past 20 or so years there has been an expansion of DIY heritage practice with the founding of numerous DIY popular music institutions archives and museums around the world This edited collection seeks to explore the role of DIY or Pro Am Professional Amateur practitioners of popular music archiving and preservation It looks critically at ideas around DIY preservationism self authorised and unauthorised heritage practice and the DIY institution while also unpacking the potentialities of bottom up community based interventions into the archiving and preservation of popular music s material history With an international scope and an interdisciplinary approach this is an important reference for scholars of popular music heritage studies and cultural studies Cases on Internationalization Challenges for SMEs Moreira, António Carrizo,2020-11-06 With the globalization process firms are seeking to expand their activities to international markets but are also feeling expanded competition from abroad Small and medium sized enterprises SMEs though seeking to expand abroad have particularities that hinder their natural international expansion path due to particular barriers and challenges that most multinational firms have already overcome Cases on Internationalization Challenges for SMEs provides a set of case studies on the internationalization of SMEs in order to share the latest empirical research findings in the field of internationalization in the context of a globalized world and which considers a highly competitive international business setting This includes examining the main reasons for the success or failure of the process of internationalization of SMEs and their inherent activities Covering topics that include competitive advantage export performance and inward internationalization this book targets managers executives and entrepreneurs concerned with how to adapt their companies to a fast changing international business environment how to conduct internationalization strategies how to choose the most adequate international entry modes and how to adapt their products and strategies to international markets It is also suited for academicians researchers and students in the field of management Democratising Participatory Research Carmen Martinez-Vargas,2022-01-20 In this book Carmen Martinez Vargas explores how academic participatory research and the way it is carried out can contribute to more or less social justice Adopting theoretical and empirical approaches and addressing multiple complex intersectional issues this book offers inspiration for scholars and practitioners to open up alternative pathways to social justice viewed through a Global South lens Martinez Vargas examines the colonial roots of research and emphasises the importance of problematising current practices and limitations in order to establish more just and democratic participatory research practices Although practitioners have been challenging the Western roots of research and participatory research for decades their goals can be compromised by pluralities and contradictions in the field This book aims not to replicate past participatory research approaches but to offer an innovative theoretical foundation the Capabilities Approach and an innovative participatory practice called Democratic Capabilities Research Democratising Participatory Research is not only timely and relevant in South Africa but also in the Global North owing to the current crisis of values jeopardising the peaceful existence of diverse societies The book gives essential recommendations for capabilities and human development scholars to reframe their perspectives and uses of the Capabilities Approach as well as for participatory practitioners to critically reflect on their practices and their often limited conceptualisation of participation
