Research Handbook on Nationalism Liah Greenfeld, Zeying Wu, 2020-09-25

Assembling scholarship on the subject of nationalism from around the world this Research Handbook brings to the attention of the reader research showcasing the unprecedented expansion of the scholarly field in general and offers a diversity of perspectives on the topic. It highlights the disarray in Western social sciences and the rise in the relative importance of previously independent scholarly traditions of China and post Soviet societies. Nationalism is the field of study where the mutual relevance of these traditions is both most clearly evident and particularly consequential.

Social Disciplining and Civilising Processes in China Thomas Heberer, 2023-08-11

This book argues that a major part of the Chinese government's road map formulated in 2017 to modernise China comprehensively by 2049 is the process of social disciplining. It contends that the Chinese state sees that modernisation and modernity encompass not only economic and political administrative change but are also related to the organisation of society in general and the disciplining of this society and its individuals to create people with modernised minds and behaviour and that moreover the Chinese state is aspiring to a modernity with Chinese characteristics. The question of modernising by disciplining was extensively dealt with in the twentieth century by leading Western social scientists including Max Weber, Norbert Elias and Michel Foucault who argued that disciplining extending from external coercion towards the internalisation of restraints is indispensable for achieving social order and thereby for civilisation but defined from a European perspective in relation to developments in Europe. This book therefore not only discusses the Chinese experience of social disciplining but also by looking at a non Western society identifies universal tendencies of societal change and social disciplining and separates them from particular occurrences.
