Mature Beyond Their Years Kathleen L. Neville, 2000. Childhood and adolescent cancer has evolved from an inevitably fatal disease to a potentially life threatening chronic one. This book offers healthcare professionals on providing holistic age appropriate health care by addressing normal developmental tasks during adolescence, psychosocial issues of seriously ill adolescents, common pediatric cancers and treatments, the unique aspects of surviving cancer as a young adult and the need for continued psychosocial support and treatment. This book will enhance the practice of healthcare professionals who care for patients with childhood or adolescent cancer.

Small Change, Big Deal Jennifer Kavanagh, 2012-06-29. As we consider the plight of our consumer driven economy it is easy to forget that money is about relationship between individuals and between communities. In our current financial mess it is worth reminding ourselves of community based alternatives and to look closely at microcredit a model of peer lending to enable people to move out of poverty. From Bangladesh from South Africa from Ghana and from the East End of London we are given a worm's eye view of small scale work of personal transformation and the building of community. Small and local is still beautiful and has much to teach us.
