Joseph B. Miller, 2009 Why another book about the Internet? The answer is simple while there are a number of excellent books on various aspects of networking the Internet, HTML, Web design, Web programming, XML and Web searching, there is not a single survey text that explores each of these topics holistically in the context of the knowledge and skill needs of those preparing for careers in any of the many information technology IT intensive fields such as library and information science, LIS, business and management information systems, MIS and decision science, DIS to name but a few. Part 1 focuses on the technologies of the Internet. Part 2 focuses on the many forms of Internet content and how it is created. Part 3 is devoted to the topic of Internet information retrieval. The Social Media Side Door: How to Bypass the Gatekeepers to Gain Greater Access and Influence Ian Greenleigh, 2013-10. Skip the line at the front door. Learn to detect the hidden social media side doors that provide instant privileged access to the top influencers and decision makers in any industry. Access is one of the great unexamined issues in social media. Barriers used to be everywhere in the form of gatekeepers and rules that governed access to people with power, authority, budgets, expertise and fame. But social media side doors alternate avenues of access through social media have opened all around us and few have noticed. Through them we can engage with top business executives, thought leaders and tastemakers. We have the unique ability to draw the attention of people and organizations that are bombarded every day by countless competing traditional requests for consideration. In The Social Media Side Door, social media strategist Ian Greenleigh reveals how to walk right through the social media side doors that lie hidden in plain sight to forge valuable relationships, create business opportunities, raise your thought leader profile or land the perfect job. It will enable readers to expand their own means of access to those they wish to engage with and the ways in which this access in both directions can be leveraged to unlock a new level of ROI Ian Greenleigh is the Senior Manager of Content and Social Strategy at Bazaarvoice His words and ideas have been featured in Harvard Business Review AdAge Adweek Ragan Seth Godin's The Domino Project and elsewhere He writes and speaks on a wide range of topics including changing consumer brand relationships the convergence of personal identities and the radically shifting landscapes of access and influence Visit daretocomment.com and follow him at be3d The Hastings Law Journal ,2012 Hastings Journal ,2013
