Oscar Predictions Discount Promo:

Research in Media Promotion Susan Tyler Eastman, 2000-08-01 Eastman has assembled this exemplary volume to spotlight media promotion and to examine current research on the promotion of television and radio programs. The studies included here explore various types of promotion and use widely differing methods and approaches providing a comprehensive overview of promotion research activities. Chapters include extensive literature reviews, original research and discussion of research questions for subsequent study. Research in Media Promotion serves as a benchmark for the current state of promotion research and theory and establishes the role of promotion as a primary factor affecting audience size. Appropriate for coursework and study in programming, marketing, research methods, management and industry processes and practices, this volume offers agenda items for future study and is certain to stimulate new research ideas.

Health

Promotion and Aging David Haber, 2010-05-20 I applaud Dr. Haber for addressing key concepts and issues in health promotion and aging and making them accessible, respectful, mindful and empowering. Marilyn R. Gugliucci, PhD, Director, Geriatrics Education and Research, University of New England, Past President, AGHE. David Haber has done it again. A must have for students and faculty alike. Barbara Resnick, PhD, CRNP, FAAN. This fifth edition of Health Promotion and Aging has been substantially revised and updated with multiple new sub-sections, topics and terms in each chapter. This book presents a wide scope of cutting edge topics including gay aging, Jewish aging, social networking, brain games, the Obama administration's health care reform, mental health parity, Exploritas, Wii habilitation, elderspeak, skin cancer, Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act, Senator Ted Kennedy's government run long term care proposal, and sleep related medical disorders. This book is focused on current research findings and practical applications and includes detailed descriptions of two of the author's own programs that have been recognized by the National Council on the Aging's Best Practices in Health Promotion and Aging. These programs are comprehensive exercise programs in the community that include aerobics, strength building, flexibility and balance, and health education, and a health contract calendar to help older adults change health behaviors.

Editor & Publisher, 1982. The fourth estate. Health Promotion and Aging, Eighth Edition David Haber, 2019-08-14. This acclaimed text promotes healthy aging by demonstrating how health practitioners, program developers, and policymakers can prevent or manage disease and make large scale improvements toward health and wellness in the older adult population. The eighth edition encompasses major new research that substantially updates previous recommendations. It provides important new content on Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security, and the ACA clinical preventive services, global aging, sexual health, saving for retirement, long term care alternatives, and much more. Accessible and comprehensive, this text is supported by abundant tables, figures, and illustrations. It describes practical strategies including model community and government initiatives that have proven markedly successful as well as health promotion tools, resource lists, assessment tools, and checklists. New trends such as green burials, LGBT aging, yoga, and dancing exercise regimens are also covered. Additionally, each chapter features
