Enjoy You Read

Jack and Annie travel to ancient Egypt, where they meet the ghost of an Egyptian queen. Share pictures of pyramids with students. Explain that Jack and Annie explore the inside of a pyramid. Ask students to predict what Jack and Annie will find. Record their predictions. Let students revise their ideas after reading to reflect what they've learned.

See, Define, Draw

(Language Arts, Social Studies, and Art)

This book takes students far back in time and introduces them to content-area vocabulary accordingly. To build independence in learning new words, try a multisensory approach. Give each child a copy of page 2. (Add new words before copying if desired.) For "See," have students copy the word and highlight memorable features, such as the double -m in mummy. For "Define," have them tell what the word means. For "Draw," have them draw a picture that illustrates the meaning. (Adapted from Stretching Students' Vocabulary by Karen Broomley; Scholastic, 2002.)

Magic Tree House Research Guide

Mummies and Pyramids

by Bill Osborne and Mary Pope Osborne
(Random House, 2001)

Use this guide to play a game of What's the Question. To play, find and state the answer to a question—for example, "The Nile." Have children use the research guide to find out what the question is, write it on a slip of paper, ("What's the name of the river that flows through Egypt?"), and place it in a box. Reveal the question at the end of the day, and post a new answer for the next day. Review use of an index and skimming skills to prepare for this activity. (Use children's answers to guide instruction in using the Research Guides.)

It's a Wrap!

(Dramatic Play and Math)

As they explore the inside of the pyramid, Jack and Annie discover a mummy and Jack reads about mummification in his book. Bodies were wrapped tightly from head to toe in linen strips soaked in resin (a hardening agent). The whole process took about 15 days, using 1,000 yards of 2- to 8-inch-wide linen. Have students see how long it would take them to wrap a mummy. Divide the class into groups. Give each group a roll of toilet tissue. Have one person in each group be the mummy. Teammates work together to wrap the mummy from toes to neck (leaving the head uncovered for safety) in the least amount of time.

Building a Mystery

(Language Arts)

How do authors hold their readers' interest from beginning to end? One way is by building suspense. In adventure books, it seems that just as the characters have gotten out of one dilemma, they are involved in another. These challenges make them work even harder, and keeps readers cheering for them. Invite children to identify the challenges in Mummies in the Morning. For example, when Jack and Annie follow the cat into the pyramid, they think they see a tomb robber. As soon as they figure out it's not a tomb robber, they find out it's a ghost! Have students do the same with other books in the series. Discuss plot patterns that emerge. Have students imagine other obstacles Jack and Annie could have encountered in ancient Egypt and write a new story!
