Musical Composition In The Twentieth Century:

Musical Composition in the Twentieth Century Arnold Whittall, 1999 This new book builds on Whittall's Music since the First World War. It updates and reshapes the original text and places it in the wider context of twentieth century serious music before 1918 and after 1975 surveying the immense variety of technical developments in twentieth century music. Sections of detailed analysis with particular emphasis on such major figures as Stravinsky, Bartok, Messiaen, Tippett and Ligeti are framed by more concise sketches of a range of twentieth century composers from Fauré to Wolfgang Rihm. Extensive musical examples are employed throughout.

Exploring Twentieth-Century Music Arnold Whittall, 2003-02-27 In this wide ranging book Arnold Whittall considers a group of important composers of the twentieth century including Debussy, Webern, Schoenberg, Stravinsky, Bartok, Janáček, Britten, Carter, Birtwistle, Andriessen and Adams. He moves skilfully between the cultural and the technical, the general and the particular to explore the various contexts and critical perspectives which illuminate certain works by these composers. Considering the extent to which place and nationality contribute to the definition of musical character, he investigates the relevance of such images as mirroring and symmetry, the function of genre and the way types of identity may be suggested by such labels as classical, modernist, secular, sacred, radical, traditional. These categories are considered as flexible and interactive and they generate a wide ranging series of narratives delineating some of the most fundamental forces which affected composers and their works within the complex and challenging world of the twentieth century.

Techniques of Twentieth Century Composition Leon Dallin, 1974

The approach of Techniques of Twentieth Century Music is appropriate for composers exploring contemporary idioms for performers learning to cope with the innovations of modern music and for teachers developing their understanding and appreciation of the music of our time. All three categories are served by this text. It is designed to provide essential knowledge of the techniques and materials of twentieth century music and to bridge the gulf between traditional academic training and current practice.
