Credit Card Offers Ideas:

People, Preferences and Prices Eugene Galanter, Howard Moskowitz, Matthias Silcher, 2011 This book explores a variety of topics that fall in the realm of psychological and behavioral economics. It demonstrates to the reader how to perform straightforward experiments in order to understand how people think about the economic aspects of their daily lives.

Behavioral economics is a hot new area of economics and consumer psychology. This book provides a comprehensive guide on consumer research and the types of results required. These approaches are spreading further around the globe thanks to the work of Dr. Howard Moskowitz one of the authors of this book and the incredible success.
