Cultural Specificity in Indonesian Film

David Hanan,2017-02-16 This book explores ways in which diverse regional cultures in Indonesia and their histories have been expressed in film since the early 1950s It also explores underlying cultural dominants within the new nation established at the end of 1949 with the achievement of independence from Dutch colonialism It sees these dominants for example forms of group body language and forms of consultation not simply as a product of the nation but as related to unique and long standing formations and traditions in the numerous societies in the Indonesian archipelago on which the nation is based Nevertheless the book is not concerned only with past traditions but explores ways in which Indonesian filmmakers have addressed critically distinctive aspects of their traditional societies in their feature films including at times the social position of women linking past to the present where relevant in dynamic ways Educational Screen and Audiovisual Guide ,1943 Audiovisual Guide to the Catalog of the
