Mr. Selfridge in Chicago: Marshall Field's, the Windy City & the Making of a Merchant Prince Gayle Soucek, 2015

Explore the fascinating story of Harry Gordon Selfridge in Chicago Illinois Mr. Selfridge in Chicago Gayle Soucek, 2018-08-06 This biography recounts the rise of the American retail magnate who would go on to open London's famous Selfridge's department stores. In early 1909 a new retail emporium readied for business on the wrong end of Oxford Street in London. The man behind it was an odd little American with a waxed mustache and frenetic nature Harry Gordon Selfridge had spent the previous twenty five years in Chicago honing his skills at the venerable Marshall Field and Company before unleashing his concept of retail theater in the United Kingdom. In Mr Selfridge in Chicago biographer Gayle Soucek follows the young man's astounding rise through the ranks of the Windy City's merchant princes. From working as Mr Field's stock boy to his failed attempt to best his former boss as master of Chicago retail Soucek follows Selfridge on his tumultuous journey one that ultimately proves triumphant as he brings the American department store to the United Kingdom. The Professionalization of Window Display in Britain, 1919-1939 Kerry Meakin, 2024-10-17

This book provides the first comprehensive history of window display as a practice and profession in Britain during the dynamic period of 1919 to 1939. In recent decades the disciplines of retail history business history design and cultural history have contributed to the study of department stores and other types of shops. However these studies have only made passing references to window display and its role in retail society and culture. Kerry Meakin investigates the conditions that enabled window display to become a professional practice during the interwar period exploring the shift in display styles developments within education and training and the international influence on methods and techniques. Piecing together the evidence visual and written about people events organisations exhibitions and debates Meakin provides a critical examination of this vital period of design history highlighting major display designers and artists. The book reveals the modernist aesthetic developments that influenced high street displays and how they introduced passers by to modern art movements. The Entrepreneurs Derek Lidow, 2022-09-28

Finalist 2023 George R Terry Book Award Academy of Management Entrepreneurs are among the primary shapers of our culture yet their role in driving progress and influencing society has often been overlooked. As far back as we can trace human history there have been entrepreneurs. Almost five millennia ago copper tool manufacturers set up a factory in what today is southwest Spain profiting for hundreds of years from trade around the Mediterranean. Papyri document the diverse investments of an ancient Egyptian businessperson from grain yielding land to flax for linen cloth. What do these figures have in common with renowned modern entrepreneurs and how do their similarities help us achieve a deeper understanding of entrepreneurship as well as the potential for a healthier wealthier and more equitable and sustainable future. Derek Lidow delves into the deep history of innovation to deliver essential new insights into how entrepreneurs create value and bring about change. Telling the captivating stories of people from many different cultures over thousands of years.

he shows how entrepreneurs transform the world through relentless innovation Lidow demonstrates that far from being heroic lone individuals they copy and then add to the inventions of others The cumulative innovations of swarms of entrepreneurs expand the scale scope and range of products and services Lidow emphasizes how entrepreneurship can harm society as well as benefit it and he underscores ways to mitigate its harmful side and harness its positive effects By highlighting the fundamental qualities of innovation throughout history this book provides indispensable new perspective on how it is shaping our present and future

Marshall Field's Gayle Soucek, 2013-02-26 A history of the iconic department store and a city's life over a century and a half Anyone who has waited in a Christmas line for the Walnut Room's Great Tree can attest that Chicago's loyalty to Marshall Field's is fierce Dayton Hudson even had to take out advertising around town to apologize for changing the Field's hallowed green bags And with good reason the store and those who ran it shaped the city's streets subsidized its culture and heralded its progress The resulting commercial empire dictated wholesale trade terms in Calcutta and sponsored towns in North Carolina but its essence was always Chicago So when the Marshall Field name was retired in 2006 after the stores were purchased by Macy's protest slogans like Field's is Chicago and Field's as Chicago as it gets weren't just emotional hype Many still hope that name will be resurrected like the city it helped support during the Great Fire and the Great Depression Until then fans of Marshall Field's can celebrate its history with this warm look back at the beloved institution

Carson's Gayle Soucek, 2013-11-19 Carson Pirie Scott and Company always enjoyed a sterling reputation in Chicago even among the merchant princes of State Street For more than one hundred years in architect Louis Sullivan's stunning commercial masterpiece Carson's stood shoulder to shoulder with retail icon Marshall Field's establishing itself as an anchor of contemporary style It was a place that brought the world to the Midwest from Parisian fashion to the authentic ambiance of the Mediterrenean dance numbers and the Santa's Village displays Relive the friendly shopping experience that has kept the Carson's name alive for over a century and a half
