My Dear Bessie Chris Barker,Bessie Moore,2015-02-05 AS HEARD ON RADIO 4 Utterly wonderful NINA STIBBE author of Love Nina Twenty hours have gone since I last wrote I have been thinking of you I shall think of you until I post this and until you get it Can you feel as you read these words that I am thinking of you now aglow alive alert at the thought that you are in the same world and by some strange chance loving me In September 1943 Chris Barker was serving as a signalman in North Africa when he decided to brighten the long days of war by writing to old friends One of these was Bessie Moore a former work colleague The unexpected warmth of Bessie s reply changed their lives forever Crossing continents and years their funny affectionate and intensely personal letters are a remarkable portrait of a love played out against the backdrop of the Second World War Above all their story is a stirring example of the power of letters to transform ordinary lives    The

Life and Letters of Elizabeth Prentiss Elizabeth Prentiss,1882    The Story of My Life With Her Letters (1887-1901) and a Supplementary Account of Her Education Helen Keller,2007-01-01 It is with a kind of fear that I begin to write the history of my life I have as it were a superstitious hesitation in lifting the veil that clings about my childhood like a golden mist The task of writing an autobiography is a difficult one When I try to classify my earliest impressions I find that fact and fancy look alike across the years that link the past with the present The woman paints the child s experiences in her own fantasy A few impressions stand out vividly from the first years of my life but the shadows of the prison house are on the rest Besides many of the joys and sorrows of childhood have lost their poignancy and many incidents of vital importance in my early education have been forgotten in the excitement of great discoveries In order therefore not to be tedious I shall try to present in a series of sketches only the episodes that seem to me to be the most interesting and important I was born on June 27 1880 in Tuscumbia a little town of northern Alabama The family on my father s side is descended from Caspar Keller a native of Switzerland who settled in Maryland One of my Swiss ancestors was the first teacher of the deaf in Zurich and wrote a book on the subject of their education rather a singular coincidence though it is true that there is no king who has not had a slave among his ancestors and no slave who has not had a king among his My grandfather Caspar Keller s son entered large tracts of land in Alabama and finally settled there I have been told that once a year he went from Tuscumbia to Philadelphia on horseback to purchase supplies for the plantation and my aunt has in her possession many of the letters to his family which give charming and vivid accounts of these trips My Grandmother Keller was a daughter of one of Lafayette s aides Alexander Moore and granddaughter of Alexander Spotswood an early Colonial Governor of Virginia She was also second cousin to Robert E Lee My father Arthur H Keller was a captain in the Confederate Army and my mother Kate Adams was his second wife and many years younger Her grandfather Benjamin Adams married Susanna E Goodhue and lived in Newbury Massachusetts for many years Their son Charles Adams was born in Newburyport Massachusetts and moved to Helena Arkansas When the Civil War broke out he fought on the side of the South and became a brigadier general He married Lucy Helen Everett who belonged to the same family of Everettts as Edward Everett and Dr Edward Everett Hale After the war was over the family moved to Memphis Tennessee I lived up to the time of the illness that deprived me of my sight and hearing in a tiny house consisting of a large square room and a small one in which the servant slept It is a custom in the South to build a small house near the homestead as an annex to be used on occasion Such a house my father built after the Civil War and when he married my mother they went to live in it It was completely covered with vines climbing roses and honeysuckles From the garden it looked like an arbour The little porch was hidden from view by a screen of yellow roses and Southern smilax It was the favourite haunt of humming birds and bees The Keller homestead where the family lived was a few steps from our little rose bower It was called Ivy Green because the house and the surrounding trees and fences were covered with beautiful English ivy Its old fashioned garden was the paradise of my childhood Even in the days before my teacher came I used to feel along the square stiff boxwood hedges and guided by the sense of smell would find the first violets and lilies There too after a fit of temper I went to find comfort and to hide my hot face in the cool leaves and grass What joy it was to lose myself in that garden of flowers to wander happily from spot to spot until coming suddenly upon a beautiful vine I recognized it by its leaves and blossoms and knew it was the vine which covered the tumble down summer house at the farther end of the garden Here also were trailing clematis drooping jessamine and some rare sweet flowers called butterfly lilies because their fragile petals resemble butterflies wings But the roses they were loveliest of all Never have I found in the greenhouses of the North such heart satisfying roses as the climbing roses of my southern home They used to hang in long festoons from our porch filling the whole air with their fragrance untainted by any earthy smell and in the early morning washed in the dew they felt so soft so pure I could not help wondering if they did not resemble the asphodels of God s garden The beginning of my life was simple and much like every other little life I came I saw I conquered as the first baby in the family always does There was the usual amount of discussion as to a name for me The first baby in the family was not to be lightly named every one was emphatic about that My father suggested the name of Mildred Campbell an ancestor whom he highly esteemed and he declined to take any further part in the discussion My mother solved the problem by giving it as her wish that I should be called after her mother whose maiden name was Helen Everett But in the excitement of carrying me to church my father lost the name on the way very naturally since it was one in which he had declined to have a part When the minister asked him for it he just remembered that it had been decided to call me after my grandmother and he gave her name as Helen Adams I am told that while I was still in long dresses I showed many signs of an eager self asserting disposition Everything that I saw other people do I insisted upon imitating At six months I could pipe out How d ye and one day I attracted every one s attention by saying Tea tea tea quite plainly Even after my illness I remembered one of the words I had learned in these early months It was the word water and I continued to make some sound for that word after all other speech was lost I ceased making the sound wah wah only when I learned to spell the word They tell me I walked the day I was a year old My mother had just taken me out of the bath tub and was holding me in her lap when I was suddenly attracted by the flickering shadows of leaves that danced in the sunlight on the smooth floor I slipped from my mother s lap and almost ran toward them The impulse gone I fell down and cried for her to take me up in her arms These happy days did not last long One brief spring musical with the song of robin and mocking bird one summer rich in fruit and roses one autumn of gold and crimson sped by and left their gifts at the feet of an eager delighted child Then in the dreary month of February came the illness which closed my eyes and ears and plunged me into the unconsciousness of a new born baby They called it acute congestion of the stomach and brain The doctor thought I could not live Early one morning however the fever left me as suddenly and mysteriously as it had come There was great rejoicing in the family that morning but no one not even the doctor knew that I should never see or hear again

Does it really matter who one chooses to marry and how one makes a choice as to who to marry or is it basically true that you always marry the wrong person Was Jane Austen right in her portrayals of couples marrying for love for comfort or for both What about arranged marriages Does the one exist How about soulmates Will getting involved in casual sex or hook up culture affect one s chances of eventually realizing happy lifelong monogamy Are promoters of purity culture basically right that their approach will help lead to happy lasting marriages Can there be a way forward through the culture wars Are dating apps any good Virtue ethics is sometimes drawn upon for a dependable approach to couple relationships But what does this approach consist of and which virtues as there are potentially very many should one focus on particularly when navigating dating culture in contemporary contexts What light might theology history and the human sciences including sociology and psychology shed on these matters Rebecca Leong offers findings from wide ranging interdisciplinary studies that address these questions and more in the process developing a five fold ethic and further building blocks for better approaches to dating in contemporary contexts
