

A heart-shaped metal lock, possibly brass or iron, is mounted on a dark, textured wooden door. The lock has a keyhole in the center and two small circular indentations on either side. The wood grain of the door is visible, and the lighting is dramatic, highlighting the texture of both the metal and the wood.

When you become a Christian, Christ comes to live inside your heart. That means He feels your every pain, joy, doubt, and fear. You become the home of God. My Heart, Christ's Home Patricia Adderley, 2022-11-21. Have you ever asked yourself, "Does God really know me? How about Who did God create me to be? Or Where is God when I need Him most? I know I have. So did David. He spent a lot of time running for his life from King Saul. He made mistakes but loved God with all his heart. Sometimes he was asking for God's intervention in his current circumstances while at other times he was praising God. However, no matter how each Psalm started, they always ended with faith in God, worshiping God and declaring His praises. This is often what happens to me. Much of the poetry comes out of what I am dealing with at the moment, whether it be depression."
