Claim:
There are different aquatic systems with diverse organisms.

Evidence	Reasoning/Justification
Aquatic ecosystems have abiotic - temp, light, salinity, depth	Different organisms can tolerate different factors
Some organisms prefer fresh water vs. saltwater. Bull sharks + manatees tolerate both	Bull sharks and manatees are very different, but tolerate same conditions
Depth reduces light and increases pressure. Organisms deal with this differently.	Many types of adaptations exist to survive in these conditions
The geography of an aquatic environment can determine the life forms present.	Continental shelf gets lots of light, so there's many living things. Not so in the abyss.
Photosynthesis takes place in the neritic zone.	It is the most productive area of the ocean. Plankton are base of food chain.
Metabolism is affected by temp. Many species are cold-blooded.	Organisms can migrate or must have adaptations to survive.

Constructing Practical Reasons Andreas Müller, 2020 Our actions are informed by the consideration of reasons reasons which constructivism suggests are not simply discovered but made by us This book examines this view elaborating its basic idea into a fully fledged account of practical reasons making its theoretical commitments explicit and defending it against well known objections

The Tongues of Angels John C. Poirier, 2010 The Apostle Paul s reference to the tongues of angels 1 Cor 13 1 has always aroused curiosity but it has rarely been the object of a history of traditions investigation Few readers of Paul s words are aware of the numerous references and allusions to angelic languages in Jewish and Christian texts John C Poirier presents the first full length study of the concept of angelic languages and the most exhaustive attempt to assemble the evidence for that concept in ancient Jewish and early Christian texts He discusses possible references to angelic languages in the New Testament pseudepigraphic writings both Jewish and Christian the Dead Sea scrolls rabbinic texts patristic references magical writings and epigraphy The discussion is divided between those witnesses that understand angels to speak Hebrew and those that understand angels to speak an esoteric heavenly language

The Invisible Hand in Popular Culture Paul A. Cantor, 2012-11-30 Analyzes how ideas about economics and political philosophy find their way into everything from Star Trek to Malcolm in the Middle Wall Street Journal Popular culture often champions freedom as the fundamentally American way of life and celebrates the virtues of independence and self reliance But film and television have also explored the tension between freedom and other core values such as order and political stability What may look like healthy productive and creative freedom from one point of view may look like chaos anarchy and a source of destructive conflict from another Film and television continually pose the question Can Americans deal with their problems on their own or must they rely on political elites to manage their lives In this groundbreaking work Paul A Cantor whose previous book Gilligan Unbound was named one of the best nonfiction books of the year by the Los Angeles Times explores the ways in which television shows such as Star Trek The X Files South Park and Deadwood and films such as The Aviator and Mars Attacks have portrayed both top down and bottom up models of order Drawing on the works of John Locke Adam Smith Alexis de Tocqueville and other proponents of freedom Cantor contrasts the classical liberal vision of America particularly its emphasis on the virtues of spontaneous order with the Marxist understanding of the culture industry and the Hobbesian model of absolute state control The Invisible Hand in Popular Culture concludes with a discussion of the impact of 9 11 on film and television and the new anxieties emerging in contemporary alien invasion narratives the fear of a global technocracy that seeks to destroy the nuclear family religious faith local government and other traditional bulwarks against the absolute state

The Oxford Guide to Contemporary Writing John Sturrock,1996 Keeping track of contemporary writing is by its nature difficult What are the recent developments in Chinese or Israeli fiction What has happened to poetry in Russia since the fall of Communism Are we even up to date with the best novels or plays of English speaking countries round the world Every year so much is published which we feel we should know about that there s a strong need for a volume to evaluate it and put us on the track of what is most worth reading This new Guide the only work of its kind to cover world literature of the last thirty years does just that in twenty eight lively and trenchant chapters it assesses the most important and interesting literary developments in all five continents Taking 1960 as its starting point and coming right up to date the book explores the recent writing of cultures as various as Australian and Spanish American French Japanese and Czech Indian and New Zealand and of course American English Irish Scottish and Welsh Each chapter discusses the literary and cultural contexts for authorship in its particular area throwing light on a great number of significant writers including household names such as Mishima Toni Morrison Derek Walcott Patrick White and Günter Grass but setting alongside them many others who may be less familiar but whose work is often just as well worth reading Combining hard information with intelligent opinion the Guide offers a discriminating and sometimes controversial view of a broad range of contemporary literatures Anyone interested in the state of world literature today will find the Oxford Guide to Contemporary Writing a fascinating and essential reference book
