Davidson, Daryl Alder, 1993-12 Do you need a good film about sport for the classroom or for a rainy day activity This filmography grew out of the editor s search for films suitable for use in the classroom The filmography briefly describes the content of each film and video In addition each entry provides the applicable age range from elementary school through adult

The 1930s William H. Young, 2002-10-30 Most historical studies bury us in wars and politics paying scant attention to the everyday effects of pop culture Welcome to America s other history the arts activities common items and popular opinions that profoundly impacted our national way of life The twelve narrative chapters in this volume provide a textured look at everyday life youth and the many different sides of American culture during the 1930s Additional resources include a cost comparison of common goods and services a timeline of important events notes arranged by chapter an extensive bibliography for further reading and a subject index The dark cloud of the Depression shadowed most Americans lives during the 1930s Books movies songs and stories of the 1930s gave Americans something to hope for by depicting a world of luxury and money Major figures of the age included Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers Irving Berlin Amelia Earhart Duke Ellington the Marx Brothers Margaret Mitchell Cole Porter Joe Louis Babe Ruth Shirley Temple and Frank Lloyd Wright Innovations in technology and travel hinted at a Utopian society just off the horizon group sports and activities gave the unemployed masses ways to spend their days and a powerful new demographic the American teenager suddenly found itself courted by advertisers and entertainers

Joining the Dialogue: Practices for Ethical Research Writing Bettina Stumm, 2021-07-08

Joining the Dialogue offers an exciting new approach for teaching academic research writing to introductory students by drawing on communication ethics Holding to the current view that academic writing means situating ourselves in a research community and learning how to join the research conversations going on around us Joining the Dialogue proposes that how we engage in dialogue with other researchers in our community matters We not only read acknowledge and build on the research of others as we compose our work we also engage openly attentively critically and responsively to their ideas as we articulate our own With this in mind Joining the Dialogue is geared to helping students discover the key ethical practices of dialogue receptivity and response ability as they join a research conversation It also helps students master the dialogic structure of research essays as they write in and for their academic communities Combining an ethical approach with accessible prose dialogic structures and templates practical exercises and ample illustrations from across the disciplines Joining the Dialogue teaches students not only how to write research essays but also how to write those essays ethically as a dialogue with other researchers and readers
