Memes Today Top Open Now:

The Meme Machine Susan J. Blackmore, 2000-03-16 Humans are extraordinary creatures with the unique ability among animals to imitate and so copy from one another ideas habits skills behaviours inventions songs and stories These are all memes a term first coined by Richard Dawkins in 1976 in his book The Selfish Gene Memes like genes are replicators and this enthralling book is an investigation of whether this link between genes and memes can lead to important discoveries about the nature of the inner self Confronting the deepest questions about our inner selves with all our emotions memories beliefs and decisions Susan Blackmore makes a compelling case for the theory that the inner self is merely an illusion created by the memes for the sake of replication

Online Virality Valérie Schafer, Fred Paillet, 2024-08-19 The book Online Virality edited by Valérie Schafer and Fred Paillet C2DH University of Luxembourg aims to provide a comprehensive examination of online virality It explores the many ways we can think about this modern phenomenon and analyse the circulation reception and evolution of viral born digital content Virality and content sharing always intertwine material infrastructural visual and discursive elements This involves various platforms stakeholders intermediaries social groups and communities that are constantly re defining themselves Regulation curation and content moderation politics as well as affects and emotions fears humour empathy hatred are also at the core of online virality The publication offers an interdisciplinary overview on online virality by including different types of scientific inputs such as precise case studies various methodological approaches including close and distant reading visual studies discourse analysis etc as well as historical and socio technical analyses The book is organised around three main topics Expressions and Genres Mobilisations and Engagements Circulation and Infrastructures The first part explores the semiotics of virality the diverse and creative forms of expression specific genres the relation to other media and the affective side of virality such as using humour or provocation The second part focuses on the political dimension of memes and viral content and their use in the context of controversy or political and ideological opposition Finally the third part delves into the often understudied but essential side of virality by examining the role of platforms and their curation in short the infrastructural dimension of virality These three parts allow us to question such fundamental notions linked to virality as among others circulation reception economy of attention instrumentalisation and affect This volume brings together authors from various disciplines including semiotics history information and communication sciences computer science digital humanities media studies In addition the contributors approach the question via case studies that allow for a perspective that is not exclusively US and European centred Some chapters explore virality in Brazil Chile while the book also examines a wide variety of platforms YouTube Twitter Instagram TikTok video game platforms etc

Film Authorship in Contemporary Transmedia Culture Wikanda Promkhuntong, 2025-10-01 Film Authorship in Contemporary Transmedia Culture The Paratextual Lives of Asian Auteurs examines film authorship in the transmedia era whereby film directors have become public figures through a wide range of textual material and performative practices The book draws on the notion of paratext and its related term palimpsest to bring forth the idea of self reflexive authorship as a method of examining the mediated past present and afterlife of East Asian filmmakers The first part of the book pays attention to materials surrounding film festivals multi platform distribution and cinephile fan creative practices which have been created rewritten and shared to foster and problematize the reputations of selected filmmakers The second part examines alternative modes of self projections and creative productions that address the filmmakers sense of selves and relations with the industry and the public Across different chapters discourses surrounding film authorship and East Asian cinema are revisited and expanded to highlight its multiple histories and possible futures
