The half dozen programs in Office 2010 are packed with amazing features but most people just know the basics. This entertaining guide not only gets you started with Office it reveals all kinds of useful things you didn't know the software could do with plenty of power user tips and tricks when you're ready for more. Create professional looking documents. Learn everything you need to know to craft beautiful Word documents. Stay organized. Keep track of your email, calendar and contacts with Outlook. Crunch numbers with ease. Assemble data, make calculations and summarize the results with Excel. Make eye catching presentations. Build PowerPoint slideshows with video and audio clips, animations and more. Build Access databases quickly. Make your data easy to find, sort and manage. Manage your files more efficiently. Use the new Backstage view to quickly work with your Office files. Get to know the whole suite. Learn to use other handy Office tools: Publisher, OneNote and Office Web Apps. Introduction to Information Systems R. Kelly Rainer, Casey G. Cegielski, Ingrid Splettstoesser-Hogeterp, Cristobal Sanchez-Rodriguez, 2013-08-30 The goal of Introduction to Information Systems 3rd Canadian Edition remains the same to teach all business majors especially undergraduate ones how to use information technology to master their current or future jobs and to help ensure the success of their organization. To accomplish this goal this text helps students to become informed users that is persons knowledgeable about information systems and information technology. The focus is not on merely learning the concepts of IT but rather on applying those concepts to facilitate business processes. The authors concentrate on placing information systems in the context of business so that students will more readily grasp the concepts presented in the text. The theme of this book is What's In IT for Me? This question is asked by all students who take this course. The book will show you that IT is the backbone of any business whether a student is majoring in Accounting, Finance, Marketing, Human Resources or Production Operations Management. Information for the Management Information Systems (MIS) major is also included.
