Innovating Organization and Management Nicolai J. Foss, Torben Pedersen, Jacob Pyndt, Majken Schultz, 2012-01-12 The search for competitive advantage serves as the basis for organizational strategy This book argues that there are four key sources of competitive advantage and financial success that have not been given the attention they deserve Firstly that organizational design and management processes may be strategic resources in their own right Secondly that organizational design and management processes can be deployed to create new strategic resources Thirdly that managers have begun to think of organizational design and management processes in a proactive way rather than seeing them more passively as necessary facilitators of success Fourthly that this new way of looking at organization and management requires a search for new ways of structuring organizational design and managerial processes These points are driven home through case studies of the Danish firms LEGO Group Vestas Wind Systems Coloplast Chr Hansen IC Companys and NKT Flexibles

Multimarket Competition and Strategic Management Adriaan Witteloostuijn, 1990 Strategic Integration Howard Thomas, 1996-05 Strategic Integration Edited by Howard Thomas and Don O Neal University of Illinois USA What a company might do could do wants to do should do These are the four elements of strategy which illustrate the integrative nature of strategic management It quickly becomes apparent that the key to successful strategy is effective integration of resources competences markets opportunities organizational structure culture environment innovation technology processes decisions and actions There are four crucial areas of debate and these are covered in depth They are Boards and Governance suggests that no element of strategy is better positioned to influence strategy and its integration than senior management Competition and Core Competences examines their interdependence and relationship with successful strategy Organizational Restructuring discusses organizational types IT and strategy managing in a dynamic environment and measurement of strategic performance Technology demonstrates relationship between technological change and strategy structure culture and competition and the relationship between quality and strategy and integrating technology and marketing strategies Strategic Integration is concerned with building and maintaining bridges between theory and practice On the research side it generates and tests theories related to business and management and on the practitioner side it shows how to learn understand and apply tested theories in practice
