Mythistory and Narratives of the Nation in the Balkans Tatjana Aleksić, 2007 The idea of this collection is to bring to the forefront various ways in which the literary poetics of Balkan nations interrelates with their national poetics and present recent and innovative explorations of literature and film which actively engage with national poetics a kind of mythopoiesis of the modern Balkans In proposing an approach to the national question that lies distinctly in the liminal space best designated as mythistory the collection brings together two dominant approaches to national discourse The first tends to interpret the nation as a myth an artificial creation an invention even a oedream The other is a mapping of the nation that considers its historically progressive role It is their multifaceted dynamics that brings to the foreground a unique national mythopoetics Mythistory is explored through its multifold engagement with the text as a major element in the universal nationalist discourse as a narrative strategy extensively utilized in Balkan literary and film narratives and as a particular technique in approaching the text Through the insights gained from literary and critical theory historical analysis and cultural anthropology this collection seeks to reveal the application of mythistorical discourse upon narratives responding to nation forming historical events The texts in this collection articulate very distinct agendas of gender identity culture philosophy and aesthetics all interwoven with national problematic but steer away from the definition by which mythistory is relegated to the transparently propagandist

Borders and Debordering Eduardo Mendieta, Tomaž Grušovnik, Lenart Škof, 2018-04-11 Borders Debordering Topologies Praxes Hospitableness engages from interdisciplinary and transnational perspectives some of the most important issues of the present which lay at the intersection of physical epistemological spiritual and existential borders The book addresses a variety of topics connected with the role of the body at the threshold between subjective identities and intersubjective spaces that are drawn in ontology epistemology and ethics as well as with borders inscribed in intersubjective social and political spaces such as gender sexuality race human animal nature technology divisions The book is divided in three sections covering various phenomena of borders and their possible debordering The first section offers insights into bordering topologies from reflections on the U S border to the development of the concept of the border in ancient China The second section is dedicated to practices as well as intellectual ontologies with practical implications bound up with borders in different cultural and social spheres from Buddhist nationalism in Sri Lanka and Myanmar to contemporary photography with its implications for political systems and reflections on human animal border The third section covers reflections on hospitality that relate to migration issues emerging material ethics and aerial hospitableness

Jacob Gould Schurman,James Edwin Creighton,Frank Thilly,Gustavus Watts Cunningham,2001 Islamic Ecumene David S. Powers,Eric Tagliacozzo,2023-11-15 The essays in Islamic Ecumene address the ways in which Muslims from Morocco to Indonesia and from sub Saharan Africa to the steppes of Uzbekistan are members of a broad cultural unit Although the Muslim inhabitants of these lands speak dozens of languages represent numerous ethnic groups and practice diverse forms of Islam they are united by shared practices and worldviews shaped by religious identity To highlight these commonalities the co editors invited a team of scholars from a wide range of disciplines to examine Muslim societies in comparative and interconnected ways The result is a book that showcases ethics education architecture the arts modernization political resistance marriage divorce and death rituals Using the insights and methods of historians anthropologists literary critics art historians political scientists and sociologists Islamic Ecumene seeks to understand Islamic identity as a dynamic phenomenon that is reflected in the multivalent practices of the more than one billion people across the planet who identify as Muslims

Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art II G Passerini,2018-07-18 Papers presented at the 2nd International Conference on Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art are contained in this volume The conference attracted important research highlighting the significance of Islamic heritage architecture and art to the world and its influence across different regions The papers deal with the design of many types of buildings in Islamic countries including not only the better known public buildings like mosques mausolea citadels and forts but also houses and gardens engineering works such as bridges and dams irrigation systems and many others which have also had a profound impact on society Traditional architecture and urban environment in most Islamic countries is now being eroded by overemphasis on a global type of architecture and city planning. As a consequence many regions are losing their identity. The included studies review these developments in the light of what classical Islamic urban design and architecture has to offer modern society. Research contained in this book provides an analysis of the materials employed and the types of structural elements used, particularly those unique to Islamic architecture. Associated topics covered include music, textiles and ceramics, which are essential parts of the architectural fabric. Also looked at are construction materials including not only stone and brick but also more perishable materials like adobe, wood and reeds. The preservation of heritage features also requires the development of appropriate conservation techniques in response to the different materials used and the ways structural forms work including under extreme conditions such as earthquakes. Academics, researchers, practitioners and government employees actively involved in the topic of Islamic heritage architecture and art will find this publication of interest.

Niklas Luhmann's Modernity William Rasch, 2000. An introduction to the nature of modernity as envisioned by Germany's leading social theorist of the late 20th century, Niklas Luhmann. The book injects concepts derived from Luhmann's influential systems theory into debates about modernity and postmodernity, constructivist and foundationalist epistemologies, the relationship between politics and ethics, and the possibilities of interdisciplinary work that spans the great divide between science and the humanities. The book stages challenging engagements with such thinkers as Jürgen Habermas, Jacques Derrida, Jean-François Lyotard, Drucilla Cornell, Judith Butler, Michel Serres, N. Katherine Hayles, and such political theorists as Chantal Mouffe and Carl Schmitt. The book closes with two interviews: one a discussion with Luhmann and Hayles on epistemology, the other with Luhmann on the functional differentiation of modern society.

The Art of Narrative in the Holy Qur'ān Christopher Nouryeh, 2008. This work attempts to recapture the fluid relationship between ethics and such institutions as faith, politics and literary art not seen according to the author since the time of Muhammad. By exploring the narrative that Muhammad employs in the Qur'an, the author works to reestablish the spiritually and politically desiccated relationship and prove that if today's Arab Muslims still deem him the ethico-political and religio-artistic model to emulate, as he has been in the past, it is because he relates art to life.
