

The background image is a photograph of a desolate, rocky landscape. A curved railway track, composed of wooden ties and metal rails, leads from the foreground into the distance, curving towards a small, dark building. The ground is covered in rocks and sparse vegetation. The sky is overcast with grey clouds. The entire image is framed by a thick blue border.

Growing up in rural Northern California in the 1960 s and 70 s led me on many great adventures and some perilous experiences many of my own making After reviewing some of these experiences I realized just how close I came to death on many occasions Childhood and teenage pranks led me to far more risky behaviors in my adult life Living the life of a drummer in both rock and country bands led me into even more risky behaviors including drug and alcohol abuse After hitting bottom with the help of my family I eventually overcame many obstacles and came to grips with my spiritual path I wrote this originally for my sons to help them understand why their father was nuts and for my grandchildren so they would have a family history to gain inspiration from Bamford's Passages in the Life of a Radical Samuel Bamford, 1893
