In the heart of a Nigerian slum where computers were nearly nonexistent and hope for digital inclusion seemed elusive, Gbenga Sesan dared to lay the foundations of the Paradigm Initiative, a pan-African organisation that now implements multimillion-dollar projects across 28 countries. The visionary's success did not arrive without the taste of setbacks. From grappling with the challenge of starting out in a community whose very name and reputation deterred skilled professionals from wanting to move there to work, to gathering resources and facing heart-wrenching moments when team members voiced frustrations about insufficient salaries, each page of this book will take you on an intriguing rollercoaster ride through the ups and downs of starting and growing an impactful organisation.
