Ojibwe Beading Patterns:

We are at Home Bruce White, Bruce M. White, 2008-02 In this collection of more than 200 stunning and storied photographs ranging from daguerreotypes to studio portraits to snapshots historian Bruce White explores historical images taken of Ojibwe people through 1950 and considers the negotiation that went on between the photographers and the photographed and what power the latter wielded Ultimately this book tells more about the people in the pictures what they were doing on a particular day how they came to be photographed how they made use of costumes and props than about the photographers who documented and in some cases doctored views of Ojibwe life Wisconsin Magazine of History Milo Milton Quaife, Joseph Schafer, Edward P. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
