Frederick Luis Aldama

Oitnb Sentence Lengths:

Caged Women Shirley A. Jackson, Laurie L. Gordy, 2018-06-13 The Netflix series Orange is the New Black has drawn widespread attention to many of the dysfunctions of prisons and the impact prisons have on those who live and work behind the prison gates. This anthology deepens this public awareness through scholarship on the television program and by exploring the real world social, psychological and legal issues female prisoners face. Each chapter references a particular connection to the Netflix series as its starting point of analysis. The book brings together scholars to consider both media representations as well as the social justice issues for female inmates alluded to in the Netflix series Orange is the New Black. The chapters address myriad issues including cultural representations of race, class, gender and sexuality, social justice issues for transgender inmates, racial dynamics within female prisons, gender and female prison structures, policies, treatment of women in prison, re-incarcerated and previously incarcerated women, self and identity, gender, race and sentencing, and reproduction and parenting for female inmates.

Latinx TV in the Twenty-First Century Frederick Luis Aldama, 2022-04-19 Latinx TV in the Twenty First Century offers an expansive and critical look at contemporary TV by and about U.S. Latinx communities. This volume unpacks the negative implications of older representation and celebrates the progress of new representation all while recognizing that television still has a long way to go.
