Mcmap Training Guide:

Baghdad to Fallujah Brian Van Gorden, 2024-08-26 This is a Marine infantryman's combat memoir from the Invasion of Iraq to the Battle of Fallujah. It chronicles firsthand accounts of war while serving with the most combat-deployed Marine Corps battalion of the Iraq War, the 3rd Battalion 4th Marines. Initially trained as an infantry platoon radio operator and then as a team leader with a scout sniper platoon, Brian Van Gorden portrays the battles that took place in a complex war and the hardships experienced from repeated combat deployments.

The Marine Corps Martial Arts Program United States Marine Corps, Marine Corps Reference Publication MCRP 3 02B. The Marine Corps Martial Arts Program (MCMAP) is designed for Marines to review and study techniques after receiving initial training from a certified Marine Corps martial arts instructor or martial arts instructor trainer. It is not designed as a self-study or independent course. The true value of the Marine Corps Martial Arts Program is enhancement to unit training. A properly implemented program can help instill unit esprit de corps and help foster the mental character and physical development of the individual Marine in the unit. This publication guides individual Marines, unit leaders, and martial arts instructors/instructor trainers in the proper tactics, techniques, and procedures for martial arts training. MCRP 3 02B is not intended to replace supervision by appropriate unit leaders and martial arts instruction by qualified instructors. Its role is to ensure standardized execution of tactics, techniques, and procedures throughout the Marine Corps. Although not directive, this publication is intended for use as a reference by all Marines in developing individual and unit martial arts programs. For policy on conducting martial arts training, refer to Marine Corps Order 1500.59, Marine Corps Martial Arts Program (MCMAP). WARNING: Techniques described in this manual can cause serious injury or death. Practical application in the training of these techniques will be conducted in strict adherence with training procedures outlined in this manual as well as by conducting a thorough operational risk assessment for all training.

A Civilian's Guide to the U.S. Military Barbara Schading, Richard Schading, 2006-12-08. Attention: Learn more about your military now! Does a corporal have to salute a lieutenant or is it the other way around? What are forward-deployed units? Is an armored cow a type of tank or something soldiers eat? Are Polaris missiles dropped from the air or launched from a submarine? If someone calls you a Cat 4, should you be honored or offended? Do you feel lost when it comes to all things military? Sure, you hear things on the news and maybe you know someone who is in the military, but you probably have a hard time fully grasping the acronyms, equipment, and protocol they discuss. That's where A Civilian's Guide to the U.S. Military can help. Author Barbara Schading decodes all things military for you. She discusses each branch: Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, and the Coast Guard in simple terms you can understand. You'll get the background information, an easy-to-read chart showing rank and insignia, and an explanation of the organization of each branch. In addition, the book has extensive glossaries that cover terms, acronyms, slang, and equipment. You'll find an entire chapter that covers special operations forces like the Green Berets, Force Recon, Army Rangers, and more. You'll learn about their specific training missions and history. Sustaining the Marine Corps Martial Arts Program, 2005 Close combat is vital to the Marine Corps a service that prides itself on being able to locate close with and destroy the enemy The Marine Corps has adopted many programs designed to dispatch the enemy at close range Unfortunately programs like Close Combat Instruction CCI and the Linear In fighting Neurological override Engagement LINE system did not completely satisfy the Marine Corps needs and were virtually incompatible with other Marine Corps training programs due to their limited focus on unarmed combat only Therefore the Marine Corps Martial Arts Program MCMAP was implemented in the summer of 2000 under the direction of General James L Jones 32nd Commandant of the Marine Corps MCMAP is an integrated synergistic fighting system incorporating mental character and physical disciplines that apply across the entire spectrum of violence MCMAP is a program that offers added value to the Marine Corps both on and off the battlefield It mirrors the Marine Corps ethos and arms Marines with skills knowledge and values that will continue to be useful to them throughout their careers and lives The Martial Arts Center of Excellence should constantly sell the program whether it is to the potential recruit the gunnery sergeant with 15 years of service or the Commandant himself The leaders of the Corps at all levels must be the primary target audience and recognize the value that MCMAP brings to the table Moreover they must require MCMAP participation of themselves and all their Marines Ultimately the Marine Corps needs to reinforce its commitment to this program by implementing requirements that place the program on equal footing as other established programs such as professional military education rifle range and the PFT MCMAP may be short lived unless the Marine Corps does a better job of selling the program to all Marines establishes and enforces overdue requirements and receives the support of senior leadership
