Australian national bibliography, 1961 Law Books Published, 2002 Transforming Health in Turkey Dilek Başar, Selcen Öztürk, 2025-04-24 Turkey's Health

Transformation Programme (HTP) has been instrumental in reshaping the country's healthcare landscape, aiming at enhancing accessibility, efficiency and quality of services. Despite generating significant academic and policy interest, there remains a gap in consolidated scholarly resources. This book addresses this need by synthesizing the existing research to provide a comprehensive overview and critical analysis of the HTP's impacts from multiple perspectives. Structured into five main sections, the book delves into the HTP's policy changes, theoretical framework, and intended outcomes since its inception in 2003. It then assesses its effects through various lenses: from the government's strategic planning and economic considerations to healthcare providers' experiences and institutional dynamics, and finally from the users' perspective, evaluating access, quality, and social implications. Additionally, a comparative analysis with similar reforms worldwide offers lessons and future directions. Targeting academics, healthcare professionals, policymakers, and students interested in health economics and policy analysis, this book aims to fill a critical gap in the literature, providing insights for ongoing and future reforms not only in Turkey but also in comparable global contexts. Dr. Dilek Başar received a bachelor's degree in economics from Hacettepe University, Ankara, Turkey, in 2006, and was awarded a master's degree in economics by Hacettepe University in 2008.
