Muslims And Political Participation In Britain Routledge Studies In Religion And Politics:

Muslims and Political Participation in Britain Timothy Peace, 2015-05-01 This new volume showcases the latest research into Muslim political participation both in terms of electoral politics and civil society initiatives Muslims play a prominent role in British political life yet what do we actually know about the involvement of British Muslims beyond the existence of a handful of Muslim MPs What is unique about political participation in Muslim communities All the major parties actively seek to court a Muslim electorate but does such a phenomenon exist Despite the impact that Muslims have had on election campaigns and their roles in various political institutions research on this topic remains scant Indeed much of the existing work was couched within the broader areas of the participation of ethnic minorities or the impact of race on electoral politics The chapters in this volume address this lacuna by highlighting different aspects of Muslim participation in British politics They investigate voting patterns and election campaigns civil society and grassroots political movements the engagement of young people and the participation of Muslims in formal political institutions Written in an accessible style this book will be of interest to students and scholars of political participation and religious studies      Leadership, Authority and Representation in British Muslim Communities

Sophie Gilliat-Ray, Riyaz Timol, 2021-01-26 The contributions explore Muslim religious leadership in multiple forms and settings While traditional authority is usually correlated with theology and piety as in the case of classically trained ulema the public advocacy of Muslim community concerns is often headed by those with professionalized skillsets and civic experience In an increasingly digital world both women and men exercise leadership in novel ways and sites of authority are refracted from traditional loci such as mosques and seminaries to new and unexpected places This collection provides systematic focus on a topic that has hitherto been given rather diffuse consideration It complements historical work on community leadership as well as more contemporary discussion on the training and role of Islamic religious authorities It will be of interest to scholars in Religious Studies Sociology Political Science History and Islamic Studies      British Muslims

Sadek Hamid, Philip Lewis, 2018-05-15 A new generation of Muslims activists academics religious scholars and professionals are drawing on contemporary reformist thinking emerging from outside their parents or grandparents tradition and are using this to inform their activism This positive new thinking is traced as it impacts and shapes the burgeoning field of Muslim women's activism the formation of religious leaders what is to count as Muslim politics the dynamics of de radicalisation and what has been dubbed the New Muslim Cool in music fashion and culture A collaboration between two academics one Muslim and one not the book gives a distinctive take on understanding Islam and Muslims in Britain today      Muslim Community Organizations in the West

Mario Peucker, Rauf Ceylan, 2017-04-07 The book focusses on the historical emergence and contemporary challenges of Muslim community organizations and their struggle for recognition as ordinary voices in multiethnic and multi religious civil societies of Western democracies It offers a range of different perspectives on how Muslim communities position themselves and navigate the social and political landscape shaped by on the one hand normalization of ethno religious diversity and on the other ongoing misrecognition and essentialisation of Muslims in the West The contributions from internationally acclaimed scholars as well as emerging researchers from Canada the United Kingdom France Germany Switzerland and Australia shine new light on both country specific similarities and divergences Belonging, Citizenship and Muslim Identity Stéphane Hlaimi, 2025-06-10 This book explores belonging among Muslims in Britain and France asking whether British and French Muslims are citizens first or Muslims first Based on in depth interviews with Muslims in both jurisdictions it considers three options open to Muslims assimilation integration or conflict and considers the differences in approach that tend to prevail among Muslims in Britain and France with British Muslims tending to favour a cohabitationist strategy while many French Muslims adopt a more conflictual approach With attention to issues of Islamophobia the author examines the crises multiculturalism and secularism are facing and argues for a more inclusive rhetoric on questions of Islam and citizenship to counter the essentialist othering approach that characterises media coverage and public discourse A call for a new paradigm of articulation between Muslim identity and Western citizenship Belonging Citizenship and Muslim Identity will be of interest to scholars of sociology politics geography and anthropology with interests in inclusion and diasporic communities Faith in Democracy Jonathan Chaplin, 2021-04-30 What is the place of faith in public life in the UK Beyond secularism that seeks to relegate faith to the margins of public life and a Christian nation position that seeks to retain or even regain Christian public privilege there is a third way Faith in Democracy Framing a Politics of Deep Diversity calls for an approach that maximises public space for the expression of faith based visions within democratic fora while repudiating all traces of religious privilege It argues for a truly conversational space reflecting theologically on the contested concepts at the heart of the current debate about the place of faith in British public life democracy secularism pluralism and public faith
