Music Modern Art Border Crossings:

Borders and Border Crossings in the Contemporary British Short Story Barbara Korte,Laura Ma

Lojo-Rodríguez,2020-01-02 This book represents a contribution to both border studies and short story studies In today s world there is ample evidence of the return of borders worldwide as material reality as a concept and as a way of thinking This collection of critical essays focuses on the ways in which the contemporary British short story mirrors questions and engages with border issues in national and individual life At the same time the concept of the border as well as neighbouring notions of liminality and intersectionality is used to illuminate the short story s unique aesthetic potential The first section Geopolitics and Grievable Lives includes chapters that address the various ways in which contemporary stories engage with our newly bordered world and borders within contemporary Britain The second section examines how British short stories engage with Ethnicity and Liminal Identities while the third Animal Encounters and Metamorphic Bodies focuses on stories concerned with epistemological borders and borderlands of existence and identity Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the varied and complex ways in which British short stories in the twenty first century engage with the concept of the border

History Painting Crossing Borders, A Transnational History of Modern Art in Early

Twentieth-Century China and Japan Stephanie Su,2025-11-24 If the goal of art history is to elucidate the politics of difference does it matter when artworks look alike How do we account for historical connections across regions in particular East Asia if works are viewed from a purely nationalistic perspective History painting is typically interpreted within nationalist frameworks History Painting Crossing Borders instead asks a series of provocative questions about the meaning and purpose of art and interpretation Weaving together a diverse range of materials in Chinese Japanese and French Stephanie Su showcases a transnational history of modern art in East Asia by centering two pioneering artists in Japan and China Nakamura Fusetsu and Xu Beihong as key examples of the limits of nationalism and the significance of cross cultural contexts The pair s similar training historical consciousness and subject matter made their early works resemble one another Nevertheless their legacies are in stark contrast Fusetsu is almost forgotten in Japan but Xu has been canonized in China By tracing their careers from East Asia to France and back this book highlights a previously underexamined moment in global art history and uncovers a crucial relationship between art practice and art historical writing Bringing together aesthetics literature gender studies and geopolitics History Painting Crossing Borders charts a new path for thinking about the multilayered and multidirectional histories of modern art in East Asia

Toward a New Art of Border Crossing Ananta Kumar Giri,Arnab Roy Chowdhury,David Blake Willis,2024-11-05 Boundaries borders and margins are related concepts and realities and each of these can be conceptualized and organized in closed or open ways with degrees of closure or openness The logics of stasis and closure as well as cults of exclusivist and exclusionary sovereignty are reflected and embodied in the closed xenophobic conceptualization and organization of boundaries borders and margins But an open conceptualization of the borderlands where mixing and hybridity take place at a rapid even dizzying pace gives rise to Creolization at the threshold of sovereignties which can also be imagined At present our border zones are spaces of anxiety ridden security arrangements violence and death The existing politics of boundary maintenance is wedded to a cult of sovereignty at various levels which produces bare lives bodies and lands We need the new art of border crossing to be defined by the notion of camaraderie and shared sovereignties and non sovereignties Border zones can also be zones of meetings communication transcendence and festive celebration of the limits of our identities Thus we need a new art and politics of boundary transmutation transformation and transcendence in the broadest possible sense that entails the production of spatial scalar somatic cognitive affective and spiritual transitions

Asia-Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art ,1999 More Than Illustrated Music Kathrin Dreckmann,Elfi Vomberg,2023-02-23

The genre of the video clip has been established for more than thirty years mainly served by the sub genres of video art and music video This book explores processes of hybridization between music video film and video art by presenting current theoretical discourses and engaging them through interviews with well known artists and directors bringing to the surface the crucial questions of art practice The collection discusses topics including postcolonialism posthumanism gender race and class and addresses questions regarding the hybrid media structure of video the diffusion between content and form art and commerce as well as pop culture and counterculture Through the diversity of the areas and interviews included the book builds on and moves beyond earlier aesthetics driven perspectives on music video

Queerness in Pop Music Stan Hawkins,2015-12-07

This book investigates the phenomenon of queering in popular music and video interpreting the music of numerous pop artists styles and idioms The focus falls on artists such as Lady Gaga Madonna Boy George Diana Ross Rufus Wainwright David Bowie Azealia Banks Zebra Katz Freddie Mercury the Pet Shop Boys George Michael and many others Hawkins builds his concept of queerness upon existing theories of opacity and temporality which involves a creative interdisciplinary approach to musical interpretation He advocates a model of analysis that involves both temporal specific listening and biographic oriented viewing Music analysis is woven into this illuminating aspects of parody nostalgia camp naivety masquerade irony and mimesis in pop music One of the principal aims is to uncover the subversive strategies of pop artists through a wide range of audiovisual texts that situate the debates on gender and sexuality within an aesthetic context that is highly stylized and ritualized Queerness in Pop Music also addresses the playfulness of much pop music offering insights into how discourses of resistance are mediated through pleasure Given that pop artists songwriters producers directors choreographers and engineers all contribute to the final composite of the pop recording it is argued that the staging of any pop act is a collective project The implications of this are addressed through structures of gender ethnicity nationality class and sexuality Ultimately Hawkins contends that queerness is a performative force that connotes futurity and utopian promise

Border Crossings Peter Wagstaff, 2004 This volume assesses the importance of border crossings in the evolution of European culture and identity as reflected in the work of modern European writers and film makers Contributors chart the processes of transition from stability to change from the known to the culturally unsettled treating the themes of migration exile allegiance and belonging journey marginality the legacy of war and displacement memory and the denial of memory What emerges is a cross disciplinary reappraisal of the concept of identity in which fixity is replaced by movement and in which the dynamic process of story telling with its narratives of migration exile and borders crossed mirrors the shifting and nomadic pluralities of modern existence
