Muslim Youth Challenges Opportunities And Expectations:

Muslim Youth Mohammed Sidiq Seddon,Fauzia Ahmad,2011 Many Muslim societies regardless of location are displaying a youth bulge where more than half their populations are under the age of 25 An increasingly globalized western culture is rapidly eroding traditional ideas about society from the family to the state At the same time there is a view that rampant materialism is creating a culture of spiritual emptiness in which demoralization and pessimism easily find root For young Muslims these challenges may be compounded by a growing sense of alienation as they face competing ideologies and divergent lifestyles Muslim youth are often idealized as the future of Islam or stigmatized as rebelling against their parental values and suffering identity crises These experiences can produce both positive and negative reactions from intellectual engagement and increasing spiritual maturity to emotional rejectionism narrow identity politics and violent extremism This book addresses many of the central issues currently facing young Muslims in both localized and globalized contexts through engaging with the work of academics youth work practitioners and those working in non governmental organizations and civic institutions provided by publisher

Negotiating Identity and Tradition in Single-faith Religious Education Inkeri Rissanen,2014 What kinds of process of negotiation are involved in teaching and studying Islam in a modern liberal context How can the common aims attached to liberal religious education in contemporary European multicultural societies be pursued in single faith education This book contributes to the search for legitimate and successful forms of religious education by presenting results from a case study examining Islamic education in Finnish schools Finnish Islamic education in which students study their own religion with aims drawn from the liberal educational paradigm offers a space for negotiating liberal educational values in an Islamic framework and negotiating Islam in its many contexts The findings demonstrate the possibilities as well as challenges in educating for autonomy tolerance and citizenship through religion The book also gives insights into students negotiations on diversity and tolerance that are important for all involved in any form of multicultural education These negotiations bring out distinct challenges in dealing with interreligious intrareligious and cultural differences and demonstrate how different understandings of tolerance in different ideological frameworks can cause confusion among students The results lead to a discussion of the educational needs of Muslim students in contemporary Western societies and the competencies their teachers need

Young Muslims, Pedagogy and Islam

Khan, M.G.,2013-02-27 Written by a leading practitioner and academic in the field of youth and community work this multidisciplinary book approaches the lives of Muslim young people from theoretical social and theological viewpoints M G Khan moves beyond notions of gendered provision and confessional activity to ask what defines a Muslim pedagogy He presents a theoretical frame for Muslim youth work that is accessible to informal educators and Muslims alike providing insight and analysis of nuances that are only possible from on the ground engagement

Sexuality Education from an Islamic Perspective G. Hussein Rassool,Muhammad Aftab Khan,Shaikh Abdul Mabud,Muhammad Ahsan,2020-02-13 We live in an over sexualised culture where sex and sexuality have become part of the public domain This sexual revolution challenges Judeo Christian and Islamic norms and boundaries As such sexuality education is a sensitive and extremely important issue and its current implementation in schools has raised public concerns This book explores the subject contextualising it within the matrix of Islamic beliefs and practices Islam binds sexuality and sexual education to a moral grid with rights and obligations justice and equity There is a dominant discourse and stereotype around Islamic sexuality which presents sex and sexuality as the biggest taboo fraught with fear and seldom discussed This book dispels such myths and misconceptions providing an overview of sexuality education in the modern world and the need for such education

Between Clicks and Clerics Ihsan Yilmaz,2025-07-19 This book explores the lived experiences of young Muslims in Australia the United Kingdom and the United States as they seek religious guidance in an increasingly digital world Based on extensive qualitative research including interviews with 122 young Muslims it examines how faith identity and knowledge come together in modern society In doing so the book looks at the role of imams in diaspora communities the trust or skepticism placed in online religious sources and the influence of family friends and digital religious figures Between Clicks and Clerics captures the shifts in religious learning as young Muslims turn to both traditional and digital sources Through firsthand narratives this book highlights the voices of young Muslims as they work through questions of authenticity authority and independence in their spiritual journeys It shows how they balance tradition with modern life skepticism with belief and personal choice with community expectations As religious authority spreads beyond traditional figures this book examines how Islamic knowledge is changing in the Anglosphere and what it means for the future

British Muslims in the Neoliberal Empire William Barylo,2025-02-25 More than twenty years after 9 11 what has changed for Muslims in the West From the occupation of lands the world has entered a new era the occupation of minds State strategies have evolved to offer a dangerous gamble to people from post colonial diasporas remain at the margins or silently blend in for the sake of an illusory liberation From power hungry Muslim politicians in elite private clubs to politically apathetic social media influencers multi million pound neo colonial humanitarian charities Muslim far right sympathisers and Muslim white supremacists this new form of colonialism Meticolonialism has effectively turned the oppressed into the new oppressors Under the promise of financial stability and representation it has effectively put God for sale at the cost of people s culture ethics identity and faith However in the wake of the new Roaring Twenties marked by social justice movements Muslims in Britain have crafted creative responses inspired by their faith in order to resist heal and flourish despite minimal resources and support Informal and independent from institutions they have established pioneering alternatives in the fields of mental health community organizing the protection of the environment heritage the arts and more Since leadership divides they have undertaken a duty of stewardship considering the world and humanity as one ecosystem that one needs to care for future generations This work is both a diagnosis and a toolbook looking at the initiatives that reshape public debates and offer working ideas for building a fair and just society     Young British Muslims Sadek Hamid,2016-12-08 Young British Muslims continue to generate strong interest in public discourse However much of this interest is framed in negative terms that tends to associate them with criminality religious extremism or terrorism Focusing instead on other aspects of being young Muslim and British this volume takes a multidisciplinary approach that seeks to normalise the subjects and focus on their everyday lived realities Structured into three sections the collection begins by contextualising the study of young British Muslims before addressing the sensitive social issues highlighted in the media and finally focusing on a variety of case studies which investigate the previously unexplored lived experiences of these young people With contributions from scholars of religion media and criminology as well as current and former practitioners within youth and social work contexts Young British Muslims Between Rhetoric and Realities will appeal to scholars who have an interest in the fastest growing most profiled minority demographic in the UK     Challenges to Religions and Islam Hamid Naseem Rafiabadi,2007     Al Jumu'ah ,2003-03

Islamic Horizons ,1997     The Perspective of Women's Entrepreneurship in the Age of Globalization Mirjana Radović Marković,2007-08-31 This book offers a wide range of perspectives on women entrepreneurs in countries at differing levels of economic development The author and her contributors provide critical insights that will significantly influence how we view women entrepreneurs throughout the world book cover     Muslim Education Quarterly ,1996     ۱۹۹۶ء مسلم ایڈیشنز 2005, :

Youth and Youth Culture in the Contemporary Middle East Jørgen Bæk Simonsen,2005 As the analytical concept of youth gained importance and was generally accepted as a period with its own cultural values and norms social scientists began to analyze how social change was linked to youth In the Middle East a new concept of youth already began to find its way into the region in the late 19th century and played a role in the anti colonialist struggle The same concept still plays a leading role today in the way young people act in relation to traditional values political systems and the West In the Arab world in general some 50% of the total population is 18 years of age or below which means that youth as a social group is of growing importance in the area This also means that for decades to come Middle Eastern governments will be challenged as their young citizens demand work a place to live and access to enjoyable and challenging activities for the ever expanding leisure time embedded in a modern way of life Drawing on extensive research which covers a wide geographical area this volume includes among others articles on Youth History and Change in the Modern Arab World The Discovery of Adolescence in the Middle East Discovering the Other Arab Jewish Youth Encounters in Arab Films Youth Moral and Islamism Spending Leisure Time with Hamas in Palestine The Construction of Youth in Public Discourse in Turkey A Generational Approach and Youth Culture and Official State Discourse in Iran Youth and Youth Cultures in the Contemporary Middle East is a comprehensive work which describes and analyzes the forms of youth culture presently being exposed throughout the contemporary Middle East It will appeal not only to scholars but also to those with a general interest in Middle Eastern culture     Samar ,1997     Sociological Abstracts Leo P.
