Written during his celebrated career as a speaker and newspaper editor, My Bondage and My Freedom reveals the author of the Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass 1845, grown more mature, forceful, analytical and complex, with a deepened commitment to the fight for equal rights and liberties. Writing True Stories Patti Miller, 2024-06-03 Patti Miller's best-selling Writing True Stories is the essential book for anyone who has ever wanted to write a memoir or explore the wider territory of creative nonfiction. It provides practical guidance and inspiration on a vast array of writing topics, including how to access memories, find a narrative voice, build a vivid world on the page, create structure, use research, and face the difficulties of truth telling. It first develops a wide range of writing skills for beginners and then challenges more experienced writers to extend their knowledge and practice of the genre into literary nonfiction: true crime, biography, the personal essay, the diary, and travel writing. Myself as Another Fr. John McNerney, 2024-03-10 Myself As Another uniquely approaches the reality of the human person, offering an exploration of the writings of politicians, psychiatrists, and philosophers on the subject of personal identity. And the other McNerney's treatment of these questions is made not on intellectual stilts but rather with a focus on the heart of contemporary human experience in the light of God's self-revelation. Drawing deeply on the insights of Jewish, Protestant, and Catholic thinkers, McNerney shows how a spirituality of unity can nourish us on a journey to the heart of who we are.

A Whaler at Twilight Alexander R. Brash, Robert W. Armstrong, 2023-09-05 Nestled at the bottom of an old leather trunk for well over a century lay a forgotten manuscript, a long-lost story. The author's great-grandson has now brought it to life. At the heart of A Whaler at Twilight is the true account of an American whaler who embarked on a harrowing adventure in the South Pacific during the mid-nineteenth century in search of absolution and redemption. After the deaths of his parents, young Robert Armstrong lived with a successful uncle, a well-respected Methodist shopkeeper in bustling 1840s Baltimore, and attended the nation's first dental school. But Armstrong threw his future away, drinking himself into oblivion. Devoured by guilt and shame, in December 1849 he sold his dental instruments, his watch, and all other possessions and signed on for a whaling voyage departing from New Bedford Decades later Armstrong wrote an autobiographical account based on his travel logs chronicling his thrilling gritty experiences during his ten years overseas His memoirs describe his encounters with other whalers beachcombers Peruvian villagers Pacific Islanders Maori warriors in New Zealand cannibals on Fiji and the impacts of American expansionism He also recounted his struggles with drink his quest for God and his own redemption Armstrong s gripping personal account is bookended by thoroughly researched contextual background compiled by Alexander Brash a noted professional conservationist Brash fills out Armstrong s intimate and timeless tale by shedding further light on whaling and its impacts his ancestor s religious milieu and the importance of marine conservation today A Whaler at Twilight is a fascinating dive into both human morality and American history The Publishers Weekly ,2002 Frederick Douglass Peter C. a critique of the white racial framing and lack of systemic racism analysis prevalent in past and present mainstream race theory As this book demonstrates mainstream racial analysis and social analysis more generally remain stunted and uncritical because of this unhealthy white framing of knowledge and evasion or downplaying of institutional structural and systemic racism In response to ineffective social science analyses of racial matters this book presents a counter approach systemic racism theory The foundation of this theoretical perspective lies in the critical insights and perspectives of African Americans and other people of color who have long challenged biased white framed perspectives and practices and the racially oppressive and exclusionary institutions and social systems created by whites over several centuries
