My Business My Mission Fighting Global Poverty Through Partnerships:

My Business, My Mission Doug Seebeck, Timothy Stoner, 2009-01-01      Tentmaking Kurt T. Kruger, 2020-09-29

Would it surprise you to know that New Testament scholars missiologists and church planting authorities cannot agree on how to define tentmaking whether or not the church should be practicing it today or even why Paul did it in the first place It is true In Tentmaking the widespread confusion and overall disagreement within the church regarding Paul's self support are exposed Commonly held assumptions are removed from their entrenched positions and myths are debunked In their place Tentmaking offers an unadorned yet powerfully convincing presentation of Paul's own self disclosed reasons for intentionally selecting to support himself in some ministry contexts but not others This well researched book provides answers to crucial questions that currently surround tentmaking as well as a practical guide intended to lead to the recovery of biblical tentmaking within the church Readers who pick up this book should be prepared to embark on an engrossing journey that will reward them with clarity on the often misunderstood topic of Paul's tentmaking

Commonwealth and Covenant

Marcia Pally, 2016 In Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally argues that in order to address current socioeconomic problems we need not more economic formulas but rather a better understanding of how the world is set up an ontology of how we and the world work Without this good proposals that arise lack political will and go unimplemented Pally describes our basic setup as separability amid situatedness or distinction amid relation Though we are all unique individuals we become our singular selves through our relations and responsibilities to the people and environments around us Pally argues that our culture's overemphasis on separability individualism run amok results in greed adversarial and deceitful political discourse and chicanery resource grabbing broken relationships and anomie Maintaining that separability and situatedness can and must be considered together in public policy Pally draws on intellectual history philosophy and especially historic Christian and Jewish theologies of relationality to construct a new framework for addressing present economic and political ills

The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L. Bock, 2013-06-14 The Cape Town Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students
