Numerate Life John Allen Paulos, 2015-11-10 Employing intuitive ideas from mathematics this quirky meta memoir raises questions about our lives that most of us don't think to ask but arguably should. What part of memory is reliable fact what part creative embellishment? Which favorite presuppositions are unfounded which statistically biased? By conjoining two opposing mindsets the suspension of disbelief required in storytelling and the skepticism inherent in the scientific method bestselling mathematician John Allen Paulos has created an unusual hybrid a composite of personal memories and mathematical approaches to re evaluating them. Entertaining vignettes from Paulos's biography abound ranging from a bullying math teacher and a fabulous collection of baseball cards to romantic crushes a grandmother's petty larceny and his quite unintended role in getting George Bush elected president in 2000. These vignettes serve as springboards to many telling perspectives simple arithmetic puts life long habits in a dubious new light higher dimensional geometry helps us see that we're all rather peculiar nonlinear dynamics explains the narcissism of small differences cascading into very different siblings logarithms and exponentials yield insight on why we tend to become bored and jaded as we age and there are tricks and jokes probability and coincidences and much more. For fans of Paulos or newcomers to his work this witty commentary on his life and yours is fascinating reading

Driving the Change Anjana Mangalagiri, 2025-05-01 A Royal Rescript issued in 1817 by Rani Gouri Parvati Bayi queen of Travancore Kerala proclaimed that the state would defray the entire cost of education. She envisioned that only free and universal education would enable her state to overcome backwardness and empower its people to contribute to the state's advancement. To uphold the continued relevance of that spirit the Institute of Social Sciences in New Delhi India commemorated the bicentenary of the Royal Rescript in 2017. This volume consolidates a selection of contributions from educational experts academics and scholars which were presented at the commemoration. The papers in this volume attempt to deconstruct conventional approaches to understanding education. They discuss the underlying forces that have continued to perpetuate inter generational inequalities in the provision and attainment of education especially amongst the low income and marginalized populations. The chapters also present an analysis of the aspects of equity and quality in primary secondary and tertiary education accountability in public policy the power of building progressive
