Health for all Children takes a life course approach to child health, starting in pregnancy and extending to the age of seven, to include transition into school and to cover the foundation years in education. This new edition summarizes the evidence supporting preventive health care and health promotion, providing an effective community-based response to the needs of families and children. Each chapter summarizes evidence of effectiveness in the topic area in health promotion and in universal and selective interventions. The fifth edition starts in pregnancy and runs until age seven, taking into account Government policies and different models of delivery of the child health programme. Evidence from all over the world is critically appraised and referenced to UK policy and practice. Health for all Children summarizes the evidence about why and what works in health promotion and health surveillance with children and families, providing guidance on how to implement and quality assure a programme and the competencies needed. Each chapter includes learning links to online training materials and e-learning for health or to resources freely available to practitioners. This established evidence-based book continues to be essential reading for all health professionals who work with children. It will also provide vital background knowledge for those charged with the responsibility of planning, commissioning and monitoring child health. The New Revised Hill's Manual of Social and Business Forms Thomas Edie Hill, 1897 Griffith's Instructions for Patients Stephen W.
