Ticket Scalping Kerry Segrave, 2006-11-15 Ticket scalping is as much an American staple as apple pie Beginning as early as the mid 1800s scalpers known as sidewalk men were charging all the traffic would bear for event tickets Although these speculators were generally viewed as pariahs and public opinion was against the practice legal attempts to limit their activities were far from successful Boston enacted laws as early as 1873 while Pennsylvania followed suit in 1884 Still such measures did little good since some laws were declared unconstitutional and for the ones that were upheld the fines were negligible with jail time rarely served Over the years as moral objections to scalping dimmed the public became more tolerant as the practice became increasingly prevalent By the 1990s the capitalist mantras of free market and economic principles of supply and demand were even being used to justify the practice This volume details the ways in which scalping has changed over the years from a one man business to an agency controlled enterprise from performances by Jenny Lind to Billy Joel The book examines the general situation public opinion and legal perception of scalping for four distinct periods 1850 1899 1900 1917 1918 1949 and 1950 2005 Emphasis is placed on the ways in which public and legal perception of the practice has evolved over this period Scalping slowly gaining a more positive status has become more accepted as part of the economic practice of free markets General Technical Report RMRS, 1998 ICT Matters Sutton Hankin, Liz Hankin, 2004-09 There is a full colour Pupil Book for every year of Key Stage 3 Marine Recruiter, 1941 Principles and Practice of Sport Management Lisa P. Billion-Dollar Ball Gilbert M. Gaul, 2015-08-25 A Boston Globe Best Book of 2015 A penetrating examination of how the elite college football programs have become giant entertainment businesses that happened to do a little education on the side Mark Kram The New York Times Two time Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Gilbert M Gaul offers a riveting and sometimes shocking look inside the money culture of college football and how it has come to dominate a surprising number of colleges and universities Over the past decade college football has not only doubled in size but its elite programs have become a 2 5 billion a year entertainment business with lavishly paid coaches lucrative television deals and corporate sponsors eager to slap their logos on everything from scoreboards to footballs and uniforms Profit margins among the top football schools range from 60% to 75% results that dwarf those of such high profile companies as Apple Facebook and Microsoft yet thanks to the support of their football mad representatives in Congress teams aren't required to pay taxes In most cases those windfalls are not passed on to the universities themselves but flow directly back into their athletic departments College presidents have been unwilling or powerless to stop a system that has spawned a wildly profligate infrastructure of coaches trainers marketing gurus and a growing cadre of bureaucrats whose sole purpose is to ensure that players remain academically eligible to play From the University of Oregon's lavish 42 million academic center for athletes to Alabama coach Nick Saban's 7 million paycheck ten times what the school pays its president and 70 times what a full time professor there earns Gaul examines in depth the extraordinary financial model that supports college football and the effect it has had not only on other athletic programs but on academic ones as well What are the consequences when college football coaches are the highest paid public employees in over half the states in an economically troubled country or when football players at some schools receive ten times the amount of scholarship awards that academically gifted students do Billion Dollar Ball considers these and many other issues in a compelling account of how an astonishingly wealthy sports franchise has begun to reframe campus values and distort the fundamental academic mission of our universities Sweater News
