

USA: A nation of immigrants

COMPLETE THE PASSAGE WITH THE MISSING WORDS.

Europeans / immigrants / African Americans / Africans / Americans / Indians / Chinese Americans / Native Americans / slaves / an ancestor

Long before Christopher Columbus arrived in the Americas, millions of people lived there. Columbus thought he was in India, so he called these people "_____". but today people say "_____". Many more people arrived after Columbus to start a new life.

Now, the USA is a nation of _____ because people have moved there from many different countries. For example, over 100,000 _____ live in San Francisco, California. Their grandparents and great-grandparents came to the west coast of America to work on the railways and in mines. 50% of all _____ have _____ who passed through Ellis Island, the place where people asked for permission to stay in the country when they first arrived. These people were often _____ (from Italy, Ireland and other places). They moved to the USA to live the "American dream" or to escape from war and persecution in their own countries.

The story for many _____ is sadder. In the 18th and 19th centuries, people captured _____ and brought them to America where they worked as _____ on cotton plantations. They didn't get any money for their work and lived in poor conditions, while the people who owned the plantations sold the cotton for clothes and became rich. Fortunately, slavery isn't legal in the USA now.
