Rehabilitation in health financing World Health Organization, 2024-01-16 Health financing is a core pillar of health systems and encompasses the three functions of how revenues for health are collected, pooled, and paid out to providers of health care services. It can be leveraged to pursue key universal health coverage goals of enhancing access, ensuring quality, and financial protection against catastrophic or impoverishing out-of-pocket expenditure. But knowledge on how health financing practices can be harnessed to promote the delivery of rehabilitation services is limited. This document is the first WHO resource on health financing for rehabilitation. It considers current practices for financing rehabilitation services, major challenges and opportunities, and offers guidance to decision makers engaged in strengthening rehabilitation within health systems.
