Two Voices in One

Chan Sin-wai, Laurence Wong, 2014-07-03 Two Voices in One Essays in Asian and Translation Studies is a collection of papers by eight scholars of international standing. Concentrating on what really makes Asian and Translation Studies fascinating and worth one's while it opens the reader's eyes to new horizons horizons not found in collections or monographs that look at either discipline in isolation. In going through the collection the reader will see how a translation problem can rear a yellow ochre head why a Chinese garden can become a source language text and in what way a commentary can shine with Multiflorate Splendour Emerging from the surreal world the reader must be prepared first to have his/her breath taken away by a translation project on a truly grand scale then to see the difference between the page and the stage and finally to be amazed by the speed at which computer aided translation has been developing. With equal amazement the reader will learn that Chinese can sometimes be more effectively taught not through Chinese but through translation and that the Greek philosopher Aristotle and the Chinese philosopher Mencius are linked not only by philosophy but also by translation.

ArchiCAD 8 Lubomir Kulisev, 2002 Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Technology Chan Sin-wai, 2014-11-13

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Technology provides a state of the art survey of the field of computer assisted translation. It is the first definitive reference to provide a comprehensive overview of the general regional and topical aspects of this increasingly significant area of study. The Encyclopedia is divided into three parts. Part One presents general issues in translation technology such as its history and development, translator training and various aspects of machine translation including a valuable case study of its teaching at a major university. Part Two discusses national and regional developments in translation technology offering contributions covering the crucial territories of China, Canada, France, Hong Kong, Japan, South Africa, Taiwan, the Netherlands and Belgium, the United Kingdom and the United States. Part Three evaluates specific matters in translation technology with entries focused on subjects such as alignment, bitext, computational lexicography, corpus editing, online translation, subtitling and technology and translation management systems. The Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Technology draws on the expertise of over fifty contributors from around the world and an international panel of consultant editors to provide a selection of articles on the most pertinent topics in the discipline. All the articles are self-contained, extensively cross-referenced and include useful and up-to-date references and information for further reading. It will be an invaluable reference work for anyone with a professional or academic interest in the subject.
