Pop Culture Literacies Mia Hood,2025-04-30 This book illustrates how young people engage with pop culture music TV films fashion dance video games memes and digital content in its many forms and outlines lessons that support them in engaging more actively critically and strategically Part One draws on qualitative research with young people as well as close

It identifies and analyzes hidden layers of story in these texts and ultimately expand and refine their interpretations and responses. In the final chapter's lessons young people engage in a process of developing a multimodal autoethnography a form of narrative composition that explores the connections between the personal and the cultural. The book provides options for teaching these lessons as standalone lessons for enmeshing them in standards aligned humanities curricula and for teaching them in sequence as a unit of study.
