It also explores trauma, suicide, and ethics with resources for both students and instructors. What's New: Stronger focus on technology, telehealth, and global counseling issues. Expanded attention to trauma, suicide prevention, and safety in the field. Greater emphasis on LGBTQ inclusion, DEI, and multicultural counseling. Updated to reflect 2024 CACREP standards and COVID-19 impact. Key Features: Comprehensive guidance on fieldwork supervision, ethics documentation, trauma care, and telehealth. Supports confident, ethical, and culturally responsive counseling practice for graduate-level students. Includes case studies, sample forms, and instructor resources with chapter PowerPoints and Instructor Manual. Written by an experienced counselor educator with a practical, student-centered approach and global perspective.

Succeeding in Your Psychotherapy Practicum and Internship Michael D. Reiter, Kayleigh Sabo, 2024-06-28. Succeeding in Your Psychotherapy Practicum and Internship is a book about what students can often expect from their psychotherapy internship and how they can make the most of their experience. The book is written from two perspectives: one that of a seasoned therapist, professor, and supervisor of therapy, and two, the perspective of a registered intern therapist who just went through the internship process. Succeeding in Your Psychotherapy Practicum and Internship covers the basics of psychotherapy internships from the beginning stages of finding and starting at an internship site to navigating the common experiences at an internship to reflecting on therapeutic growth and the ending of an internship and much more. Students will come away from this book with a deep understanding of each perspective, one that will enhance their appreciation of the practicalities and possibilities of their practicum and internship experiences.

The School Psychology Practicum and Internship Handbook Eric Rossen, Diana Joyce-Beaulieu, 2015-08-18. The School Psychology Practicum and Internship Handbook is an outstanding resource written by known leaders in the field to assist graduate students in effectively navigating common ethical issues, promoting strong supervisory relationships, and becoming skilled self-advocates. As a former school psychologist and now doctoral intern, I find this book is a gold mine of information that can be immediately applied to strengthen training experiences and develop the highest standards for future practice. Sheila Desai, NCSP Doctoral Candidate in School Psychology, University of Massachusetts Boston. Supervising practicum and internship is challenging, but Joyce Beaulieu and Rossen make it infinitely easier with this handbook. The practical information and extensive resources provide university supervisors what they need to implement best practice supervision. This user-friendly book is a must-have for all school psychology supervisors and is sure to become one of the best supervision resources in our field. Lisa Kelly Vance, PhD, Professor and Director, School Psychology, University of Nebraska at Omaha. The first comprehensive guide for school psychology practica and internships. Tailored to the unique educational requirements of school psychology, this is the first complete guide to practicum and internship for school psychology students and faculty.

Practicum and Internship Textbook for Counseling and Psychotherapy John Charles Boylan, 1988

The stated purpose of this text is to assist supervisors and practicum students and interns in their practicum internship training. This book contains theoretical components which are valuable and essential to the training of student counselors and psychotherapists. In addition to the theoretical aspects presented, training activities germane and necessary to the development of applied counseling skills are explicated. The text responds to major changes that have taken place in the professional legal and ethical aspects of training. The first chapter discusses definitions, phases and standards for internships. The second and third chapters focus on practicum and internship experiences respectively. The fourth chapter discusses monitoring the interactions with the client. The fifth chapter discusses monitoring the professional development of practicum students and interns. The sixth chapter focuses on ethical and legal guidelines including standards of the American Association for Counseling and Development, the American Psychological Association and the National Academy of Certified Mental Health Counselors. The seventh chapter discusses models and methods of consultation in schools and mental health agencies. The eighth chapter discusses recognizing and managing critical client problems. The last chapter includes forms for final evaluation.
