The Future of Nursing as Envisaged by the Institute of Medicine Patrick Kimuyu,2018-07-04 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject Nursing Science Miscellaneous grade 1 4 Egerton University language English abstract In the recent years nursing education and practice appear to have been influenced by the current healthcare reforms The Affordable Care Act has introduced cross sectional changes in the US healthcare system For instance it has led to an increase in the number of uninsured people by introducing universal healthcare under the reviewed health insurance plans It is predicted that expanding the reach of insurance coverage will place greater demands on the primary care system as witnessed in Massachusetts IOM 2010a Consequently the scope of healthcare services has experienced immense changes ranging from patient's privacy protection as it is defined by HIPAA to the treatment of degenerative diseases IOM observes primary care medical homes and accountable care organizations ACOs rely on interventions that fall squarely within the scope of practice of RNs e g care coordination transitional care p 375 Owing to these changes in the US healthcare system transient reforms in the nursing profession are deemed necessary for addressing the vast needs of the US population and this explains the importance of the 2010 Institute of Medicine s recommendations Evidence indicates that the nursing profession plays the pivotal role in the healthcare system because it accounts for the largest percentage of the healthcare workforce As such introducing transformations in the nursing profession appear to be as significant as the Affordable Care Act especially regarding the improvement of healthcare service delivery Therefore this research paper will provide a comprehensive overview on the impact of IOM recommendations on the nursing profession including the key messages
