The Persuasion Handbook James Price Dillard,Michael Pfau,2002-07-23 The Persuasion Handbook provides readers with cogent comprehensive summaries of research in a wide range of areas related to persuasion From a topical standpoint this handbook takes an interdisciplinary approach covering issues of interest to interpersonal and mass communication researchers as well as psychologists and public health practitioners Persuasion is presented in this volume on a micro to macro continuum moving from chapters on cognitive processes the individual and theories of persuasion to chapters highlighting broader social factors and phenomena related to persuasion such as social context and larger scale persuasive campaigns Each chapter identifies key challenges to the area and lays out research strategies for addressing those challenges Prevention of Skin Cancer David Hill,Dallas R. English,J. Mark Elwood,2013-03-14 Our series Cancer Prevention Cancer Control continues to address the causes and prevention of cancer In this volume Hill Elwood and English bring together a rich resource summarizing the state of science underpinning the primary prevention of skin cancer While skin cancer causes an increasing burden particularly in populations of European origin our understanding of the role of sun exposure together with the genetic components of skin cancer continues to grow Given the emphasis on evidence based medicine and public health prevention efforts it is noteworthy that although we can all access the same evidence base countries around the world have had remarkably different responses to the application of this knowledge to prevent skin cancer The outstanding contribution of the Australian public health community to the scientific understanding of skin cancer etiology and the translation of this knowledge into national prevention efforts uniquely positions the editors to compile this volume focused on the primary prevention of skin cancer In so doing they draw on an international team of authors to present a state of the science summary of skin cancer prevention and to identify those areas where uncertainty remains To achieve successful prevention of cancer we must translate our scientific knowledge base into effective prevention programs This book offers the reader keen insights into the depth of our understanding of etiologic pathways for skin cancer This etiologic science base is complemented by rigorous prevention science placing emphasis on the social context for effective and sustained prevention efforts Perspectives on Persuasion, Social Influence, and Compliance Gaining John S. Seiter,Robert H. Gass,2004 This collection of chapters written by some of the most important persuasion scholars of our time represents the scope depth and richness of the field of persuasion With contributions from authors in a wide variety of disciplines Perspectives On Persuasion Social Influence and Compliance Gaining provides students with a panoramic view of the field broadening their perspective and understanding of the influence and impact of persuasion in our lives Contributing authors include Richard Petty John Cacioppo James Dillard Daniel O Keefe Michael Cody Robert Cialdini Michael Burgoon Linda Carli David Buller Judee Burgoon and others Features Students gain insights directly from those who produced the theories and research as these top notch scholars reflect on the development of the theory or research where it is going and where it has been The contributors come from multiple disciplines including communication psychology and business offering students multiple perspectives on the content Introductions to each section provide students with the rationale for student an appreciation of ethics an orientation to each chapter and an understanding of each chapter s contribution to the field Early chapters on conceptualizations of persuasion the history of the field and theoretical developments give students the background necessary for understanding what persuasion is and how it functions Chapters on both theories of persuasion and the practice of persuasion in multiple contexts help students see the connection between theory and practice Concrete examples of theories and concepts bring the text to life and help students more easily understand the material Chapter on deception enables students to see how one of the most recently researched areas fits into the field of persuasion
