Current Law Index, 2004 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1992 Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print, 1993 Towards a Science of International Arbitration Christopher R. Drahos, Richard W. Naimark, 2005-01-01 Most books on international commercial arbitration approach the subject through legal theory supported by anecdotal evidence This remarkable book is distinguished by its focus on the application of quantitative empirical research to the study of international arbitration It collects together with commentary the existing empirical literature on the subject and also presents several studies published here for the first time Beginning with a basic overview of the methods of empirical research surveys observational studies experimental studies the book goes on to reprint the existing empirical studies under six headings why parties agree to arbitrate arbitration clauses arbitral procedures arbitrator selection rules of decision and applicable law and arbitration awards Written in an easily accessible non technical manner Towards a Science of International Arbitration provides the starting point for future empirical research on international arbitration by collecting the existing empirical literature in one place and by suggesting possible topics for research It will be of inestimable value to lawyers and others involved in international dispute resolution whether as arbitrators parties party representatives or in house counsel as well as to academics interested in methods of resolving disputes in international commerce International Arbitration Law Library, 2006* Twilight Issues in International Arbitration George Bermann, 2023-03-09 There are many issues of arbitral practice that remain largely unaddressed or very poorly addressed in the sources to which tribunals and counsel conventionally turn for procedural guidance the arbitration agreement the lex arbitri and rules of procedure This book brings together the most frequently recurring of such twilight issues so called because all participants in the arbitral process when facing them find themselves in the dark showing in each case where it is best for arbitrators counsel and parties to look for solutions offering logic certainty and predictability The issues ably covered by the author include among others the following Is a non signatory bound by or entitled to invoke an arbitration agreement When may res judicata or collateral estoppel subject Should a tribunal issue an anti suit injunction When may a tribunal treat as mandatory a law other than the chosen one On what basis may a witness invoke testimonial privilege When may a tribunal sanction counsel for what it considers misconduct By what standards is a determination of corruption to be made How should a tribunal determine the interest rate applicable to an award On what basis are costs to be allocated Examining in turn the guidance that may be provided by normative sources national law and if so which one simple exercise of good judgment or international standards derived from soft law arbitral jurisprudence international law and scholarly and professional commentary the analysis clearly shows how when conventional sources of legal guidance are unavailing decisions on important matters of arbitral practice and procedure are best made The book will prove of major relevance and value to any and all stakeholders in the international arbitral process whether commercial or investor state
