A Personal Record Joseph Conrad, 2017-04-05 As a general rule we do not want much encouragement to talk about ourselves yet this little book is the result of a friendly suggestion and even of a little friendly pressure I defended myself with some spirit but with characteristic tenacity the friendly voice insisted You know you really must It was not an argument but I submitted at once If one must You perceive the force of a word He who wants to persuade should put his trust not in the right argument but in the right word The power of sound has always been greater than the power of sense I don't say this by way of disparagement It is better for mankind to be impressionable than reflective Nothing humanely great great I mean as affecting a whole mass of lives has come from reflection On the other hand you cannot fail to see the power of mere words such words as Glory for instance or Pity I won't mention any more They are not far to seek Shouted with perseverance with ardour with conviction these two by their sound alone have set whole nations in motion and upheaved the dry hard ground on which rests our whole social fabric There's virtue for you if you like Of course the accent must be attended to The right accent That's very important
