Box Office College Football Today:

Shaping College Football Raymond Schmidt, 2007-06-18 Raymond Schmidt examines the many factors that were a part of college football's reshaping in the 1920s as the universities became dependent upon the revenue being generated by football and the sport increasingly became identified as a commercialized big business activity all of it being played out against a backdrop of struggle between the academic and athletic factions over control of intercollegiate sport's place in the lives of the students and the university community. This is the most detailed examination ever undertaken of college football's Golden Era and the topics discussed range from the shift of power away from the game's pioneering schools through the real evolution of forward passing to stadium building and the decade long struggle over the game's growing over emphasis that culminated in the legendary Carnegie Report of 1929. Including chapters on college football's class oriented opposition to professional football during the decade the rise of the sport at the Catholic colleges and the historically Black colleges and some of the major scandals and disputes involving the universities. Shaping College Football also contributes to the study of sport and culture.

With the 1940 release of the classic film Knute Rockne All American the myth of the hero scholar athlete was born and with it came the age of big time college sports in America. Drawing on a wide variety of sources including press accounts letters and diaries historical papers and interviews with many who were there Murray Sperber recounts how the myths created by Hollywood studios were embellished and codified by a hungry press infiltrating the collective unconscious with epic stories of players coaches and teams. As college sports became a mainstay of popular entertainment they also were fertile ground for near fatal scandal ultimately giving rise to the modern NCAA Sperber vividly re creates the world of postwar America with its all powerful radiomen its lurid press its growing prosperity and of course the infancy of television     Truth ,1893     Saturday Review ,1889     The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1884     Motion Picture Review Digest ,1937     Television Opportunities ,1950     Cable Television Business ,1986-07     The Exhibitor ,1951 Some issues include separately paged sections Better management Physical theatre extra profits Review Servisection     The Sporting News ,1979     Yearbook National Collegiate Athletic Association,     USA Today Index ,1996     The Saturday Evening Post ,1959     Canadian Moving Picture Digest ,1951     Statistical Reference Index ...
